 Ernestown cemetery)

Mary Eleanor Booth 1816-1888 m. Parker Smith Timmerman ^{from Wilton.} of Odessa.
 Joshua Booth. m. — Smith., lived in Odessa. ^(your item)
 Philip Dorland Booth. - 1883. x bachelor? warden? ^{white.} of frame 'cottage' ^{by creek.} 1832.
 (Miss) — Booth. m. — Boyden. moved to Illinois.
 Dr. Dan. Bedell Booth of Odessa
 Betsey Booth. m. — Scouten
 Donald Booth. druggist of Odessa.
 John Kirby Booth m. — Fry, dau. of a widow lumberman.
 | sister Fry m.
 | a brother Booth?

My grandmother was a good friend of ^{one of the} daughters of John K. Booth, though her mother's cousin, her age. ~~Edith~~ Ethel Booth married Dr. Harold Storms., of Hamilton, his second marriage - and so she was step-mother of Dr. Harold Storms-junior. Ethel died about 1951. according to my late grandfather. I have two photos of her as a young lady, and she certainly had Dorland features.

I hope that Mrs. Williams of Cape Vincent may join the loyalist association. I did not tell you previously but I am on the executive - without portfolio - of Toronto Branch, and was one of the pallbearers of Lina Johnston. Mrs. Ross Mansford, who died 4 May 1915. Years ago I was less sensitive to a death, but as time goes by, I seem to become more involved.

Of interest to you. My mother is now editor of her own newspaper 'The Packet', a weekly, sink or swim? Brockville.

I hope to talk my mother into supporting the loyalist association as a descendant of Moses Shatford of Augustatwp. and later of Wolford Twp. She has the ~~18~~ 1780-1781 minute books for N.Y. state court action against loyalists in which Jacob Timmerman is mentioned. I had a photostat made of her typing. In a former letter I called Jacob. Nicholas Jarvis. At least desc. Daniel said Nicholas. But Everett Timmerman has a clock at his home in Dublin^{County} (Hawth village) with Jacob Timmerman written on it. Everett is a son of Harry who moved to Montreal Island. We do know that our ancestor came from just outside of Albany. Hoonick, that is Granny Moses the painter's area, is just 30 miles from Albany. You say your Jacob as listed had four daughters. He is either senior or he started a new litter or life near Wilton twenty years later. We have no record of him arriving in Canada before 1796. though by the judgement of 1781 he was of loyalist leanings. He must have been related to the others. for his children in Canada were Mercy, George, Henry, Conrad, Parker. George carried on the carpenter trade. Also I noted a John Timberman in the appendix of the Loyalist Centenary book. published 1885. but did not say where he settled. I should write N.Y. state library. someday. Right now I am doing Edmunds. notes from Danby, Vermont 1801. to Wolford + Montague twps.

DOOTHs of KINGSTON and ERNESTTOWN.

3. Philip Dorland, born in 1815; married, 29 Jan., 1842, Hannah, daughter of John Blake, of Odessa. He died 18 Oct., 1883, aged 68 years. Hannah was born in August, 1816, and died 21 Feb., 1892. Both lie buried in Cataract Cemetery. His will, dated 11 October, 1883 (located in the Court House, Napanee), mentions his wife, Hannah, his children, Arnold P., and Kate, wife of Doctor Yeomans, of Mount Forest, Ontario, and his brother, Donald B. DOOTH.

A biographical sketch in Herrington's History of Lennox & Addington states that "he was born at Millhaven, in Ernesttown, but afterwards moved to Odessa, where he engaged in the lumber business on a large scale. The greater portion of the lumber saved in the township of Ernesttown during the first half of the nineteenth century passed through the mills of some member of the Dooth family. He also operated a grist-mill. He was a member of the first council of the township, in 1850. He was elected no less than fourteen times in the municipal elections, and once allowed his name to be placed in nomination at the general election for representative to the Legislative Assembly. There were two other candidates in the field; and in the three-cornered fight he suffered defeat. He died on October 18th, 1883."

The children of Philip and Hannah Dooth were:

- a. Catherine M. (Kate), born 1844; married Doctor Yeomans. They resided in Mount Forest, Ontario. She was alive in 1883.
 - b. Arnold P., born in 1845; married Henrietta (surname unknown). She was born in Massachusetts, U. S. A., in 1850. She died 3 Sept., 1921, aged 71 years. Both lie buried in Cataract Cemetery. Arnold died 14 January, 1896, aged 51 years, "dropped dead at the spring while getting a pail of water."
- Known children:
1. Roberta, born in 1868.
- c. Frances E., born in 1849; married John McLaren. They removed to Mount Forest, where she died 6 March, 1873, aged 25 years, 7 months, 11 days.
4. Mary Eleanor, born in 1816 and died in 1888. She married Parker Smith Timmerman, the first postmaster of Odessa, born in 1820 and died in 1897. Their known children were:
- a. Eliza Ann.
 - b. Cecilia.
 - c. Alice.
 - d. Albert.
 - e. Wellington.
 - f. John R.
 - g. Loretta.
 - h. Henry Pultz.
 - i. Charles.

B

BOOTHs of KINGSTON and ERNESTTOWN.

Children of Joshua Booth and Margaret Fraser (continued).

9. Eleanor, born 9 October, 1802. She drew 200 acres of land by O. C., dated 7 August, 1829. She married, after 1829, Dr. Phelps, who died within a few years. She married, secondly, 14 Jan., 1836, George Hamilton. Children, if any, are unknown.
10. Charles Andrew, born 2 August, 1806. He drew 200 acres of land by O. C., dated 4 July, 1833. He never married, and was alive in 1861, according to the census of that year.
11. Mehitable. Her name appears in a list of Joshua's children in John C. Clark's Reminiscences, dated 1844, which states that she was dead. It must be assumed that she died young.
12. Harriot Rebecca, born 18 July, 1809. She drew 200 acres of land by O. C., dated 4 July, 1833. She married, 11 April, 1840, John Doty. He died of consumption 15 May, 1843. She is said to have married, secondly, Charles Andrews. Names of children, if any, is unknown.

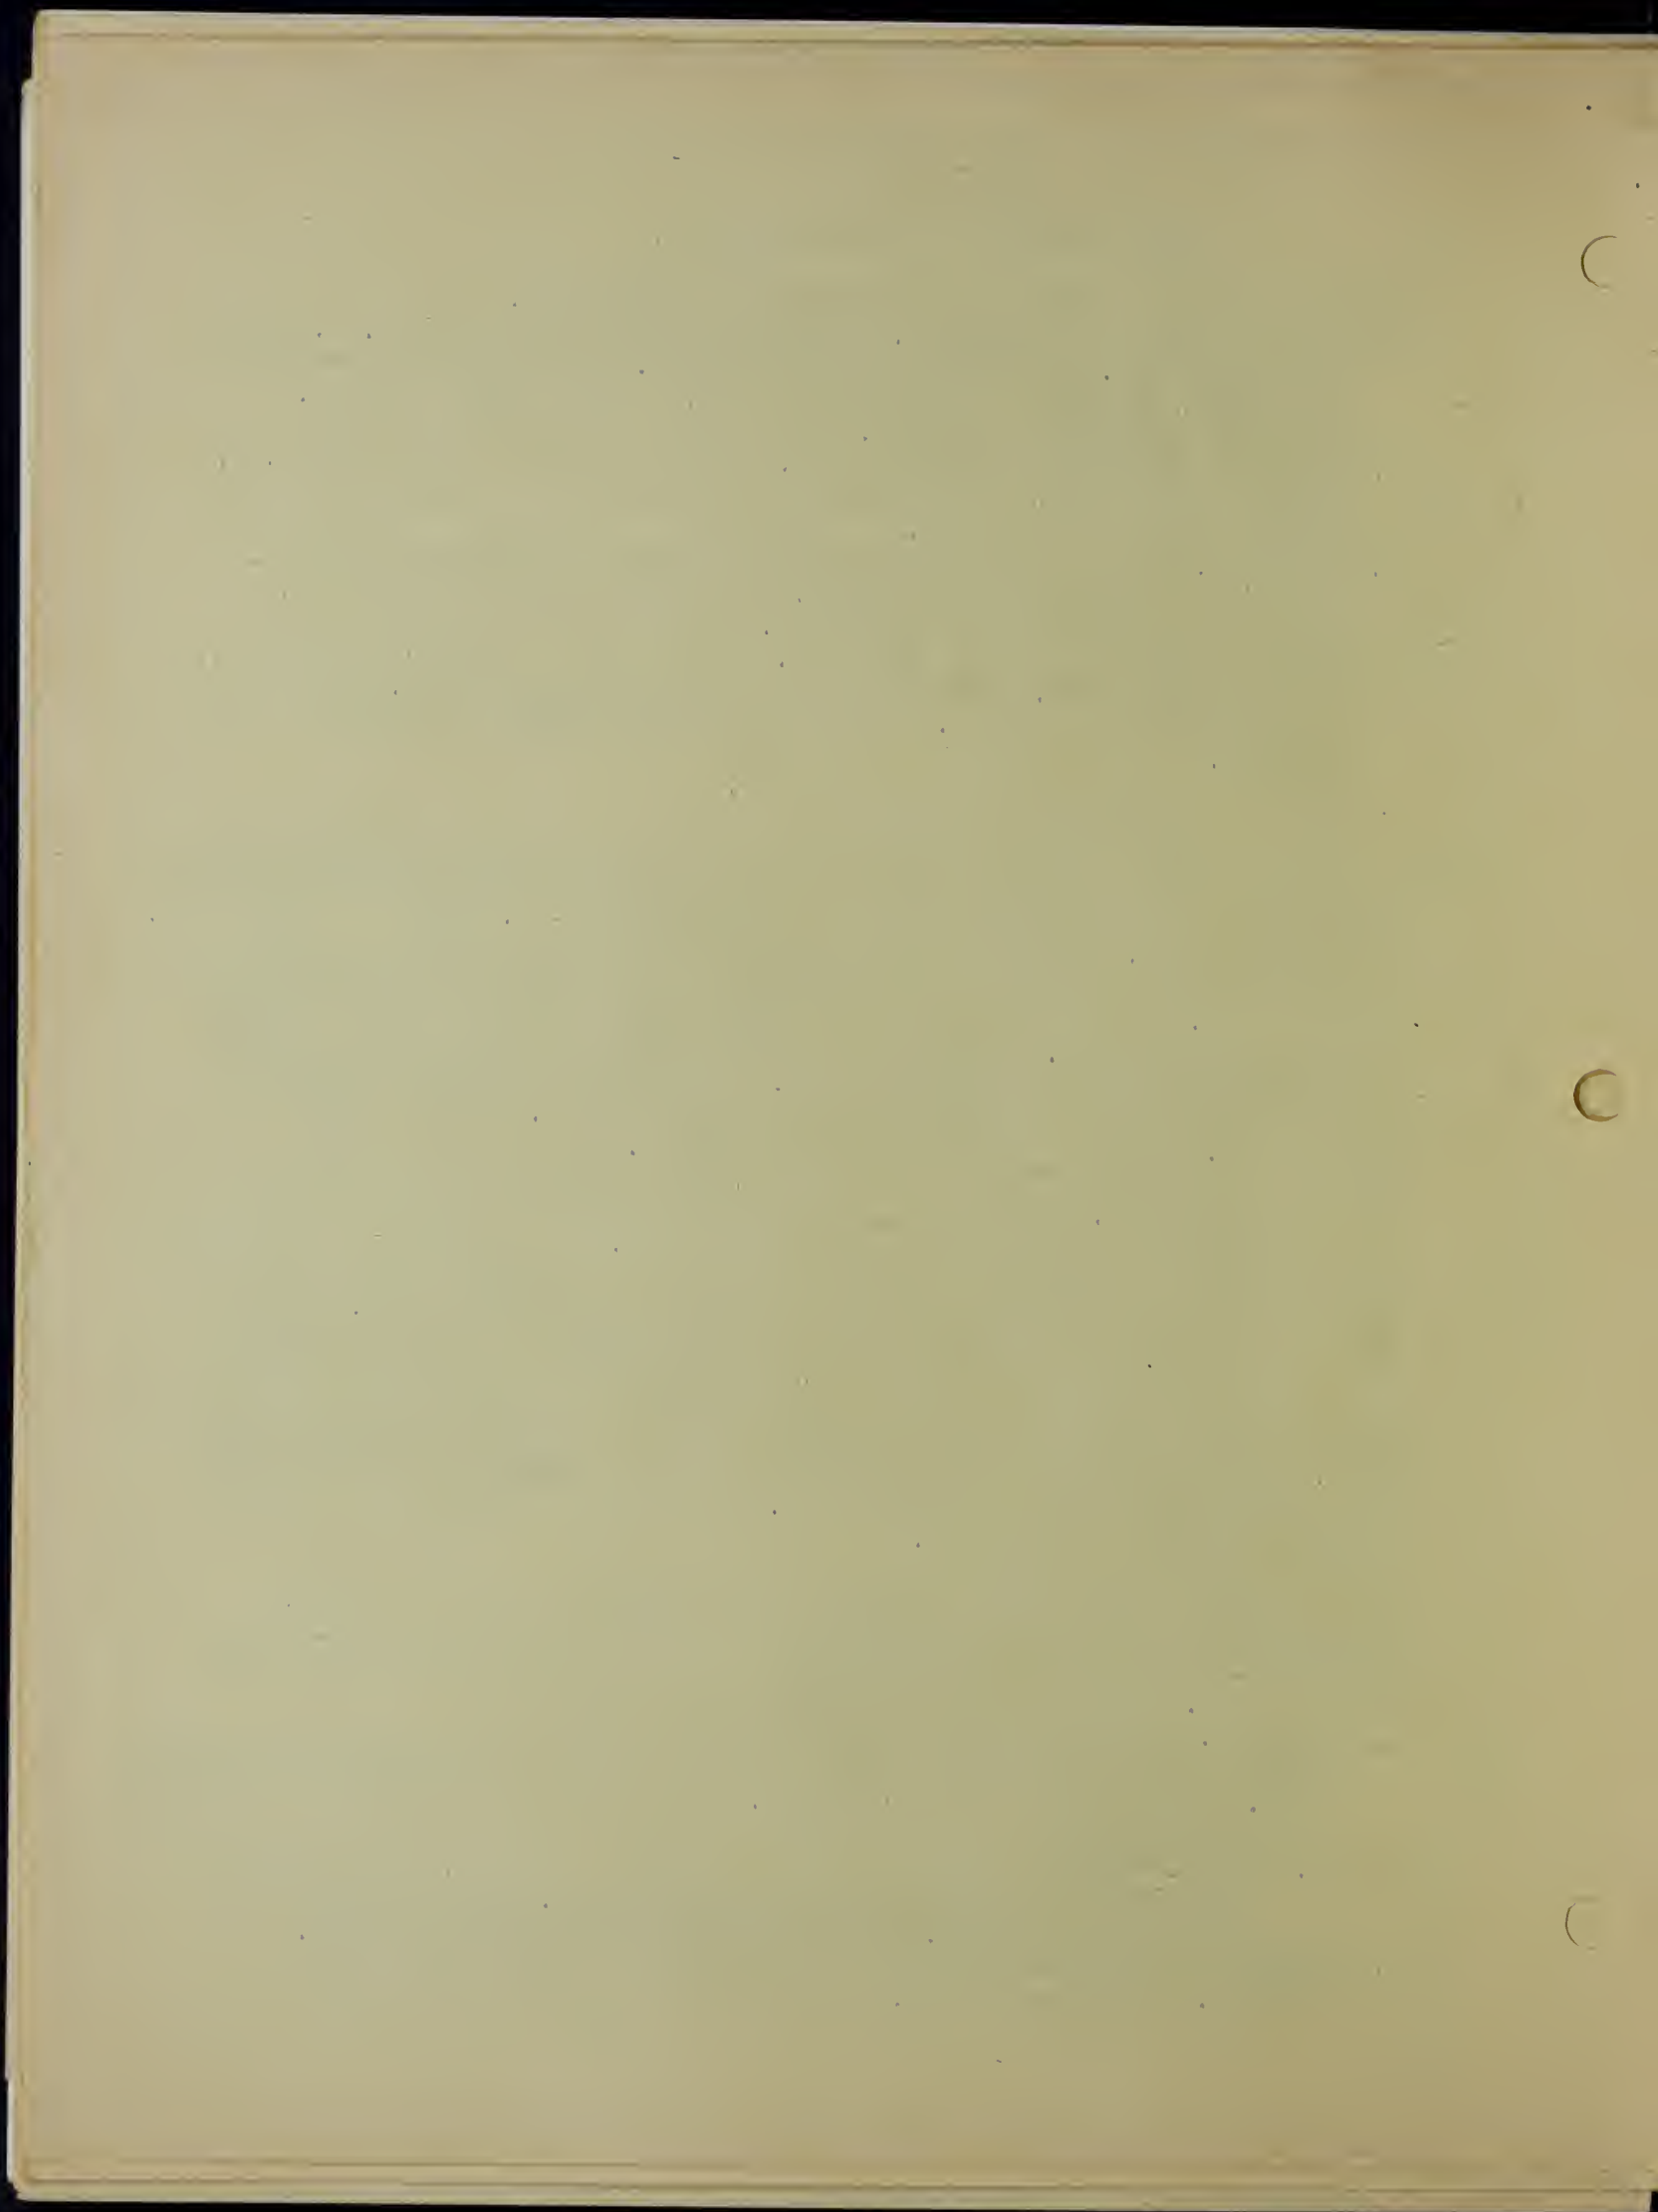

Benjamin BOOTH, called the eldest son of Joshua Booth and Margaret Fraser, was born in 1785, near Millhaven, Ernesttown Township, likely on lot 40, concession 1. He drew 200 acres of land, as son of a Loyalist, by O. C., dated 23 Feb., 1809. He married, 9 Nov., 1809, Catharine, daughter of Philip Dorland, a Loyalist, of Adolphustown, and brother of the Daniel Bedell Dorland who married Benjamin's sister, Sarah. Catharine died 29 April, 1838, aged 50 years, and lies buried in Ernesttown Cemetery. There is no gravestone for Benjamin, although it can be assumed that he lies beside his wife. His name, as a widower, appears in the census of 1861, as residing with his son, Philip D., but is missing from that of 1871. Likely he died between those years.

Benjamin BOOTH was 28 years of age, and already married, when his father died so suddenly in 1813. As the eldest son, he took over the grist mill which had been erected at the falls just north of Millhaven. In the course of time this mill was sold to an American named Henderson, and the Booths erected new mills on Mill Creek two miles to the north, at what is now Link's Mills. In the meantime, John Link had established himself four miles to the north, at what is now Odessa, then called Mill Creek. An exchange was arranged, after several years of bickering and litigation, about 1835, by which the Booths took over the Mill Creek property, while Link took the lower mills, later known as Link's Mills. Benjamin, his sons and grandsons, carried on business at what is now Odessa for more than seventy-five years. The last Booth property was sold in 1913, and removed to Gananoque.

Besides being a veteran of the Rebellion of 1837, Benjamin BOOTH took an active part in the municipal affairs of the Township, as did his sons.

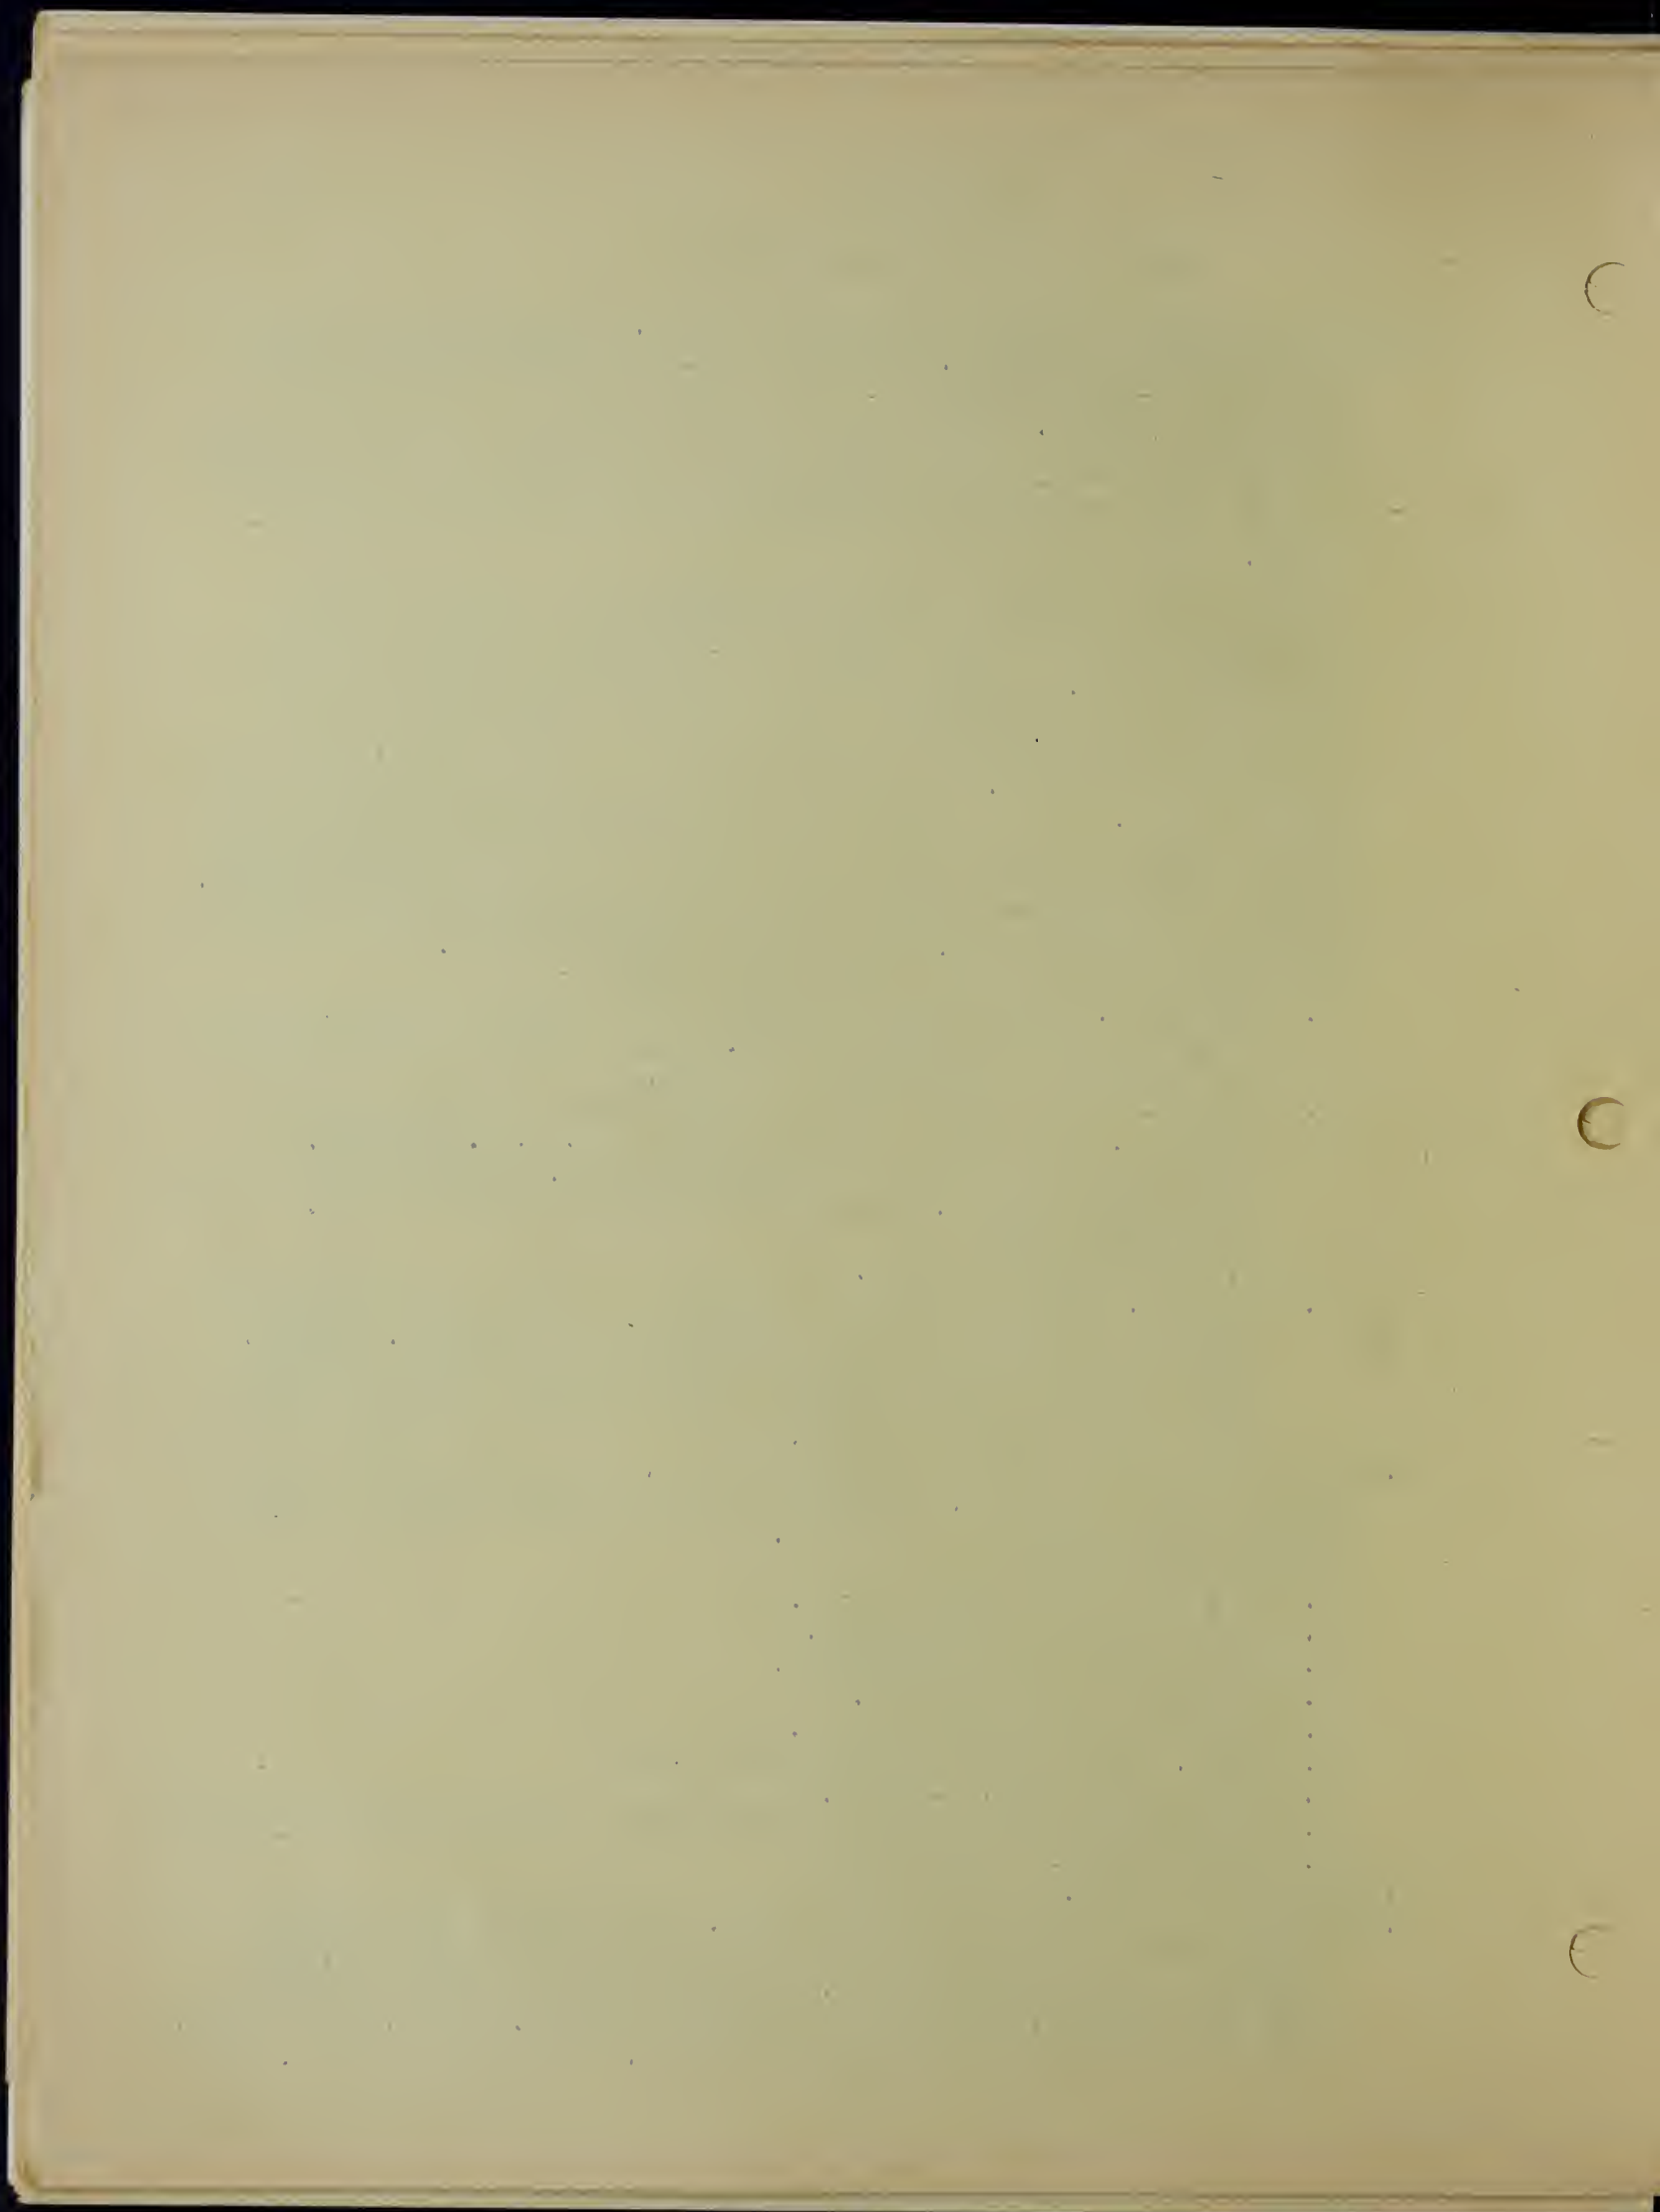

Benjamin BOOTH and Catharine Dorland left a relatively large family. There is some doubt that this list is correct, but it has been supplied by members of the family. Further investigation is suggested. They are:

1. Harriot T., born 29 October, 1810; married, 4 July, 1832, George W. Baldwin. (One branch of the family states that a daughter of Benjamin Booth married a Mr. Boyden, and moved to Illinois. Did they confuse Baldwin with Boyden?) A known child was
 - a. Dyer P. (called grandson of Benjamin Booth in John C. Clark's diary), born 15 August, 1835; died at Odessa 21 Jan., 1862, aged 26 years, 5 months and 6 days. He lies buried in Ernesttown Cemetery.
2. Elizabeth (Detsy), born about 1812, married, 15 April, 1829, Jacob Scouton. No further record.

BOOTHS of KINGSTON and ERNESTTOWN.

3. Philip Dorland, born in 1815; married, 29 Jan., 1842, Hannah, daughter of John Blake, of Odessa. He died 18 Oct., 1883, aged 68 years. Hannah was born in August, 1816, and died 21 Feb., 1892. Both lie buried in Cataract Cemetery.
His will, dated 11 October, 1883 (located in the Court House, Napanee), mentions his wife, Hannah, his children, Arnold P., and Kate, wife of Doctor Yeomans, of Mount Forest, Ontario, and his brother, Donald B. Booth.
A biographical sketch in Harrington's History of Lennox & Addington County states that "he was born at Millhaven, in Ernesttown, but afterwards moved to Odessa, where he engaged in the lumber business on a large scale. The greater portion of the lumber sawed in the township of Ernesttown during the first half of the nineteenth century passed through the mills of some member of the Booth family. He also operated a grist-mill. He was a member of the first council of the township, in 1850. He was elected no less than fourteen times in the municipal elections, and once allowed his name to be placed in nomination at the general election for representative to the Legislative Assembly. There were two other candidates in the field; and in the three-cornered fight he suffered defeat. He died on October 18th, 1883."
The children of Philip and Hannah Booth were:
 - a. Catherine M. (Kate), born in 1843-4; married Doctor Yeomans. They resided in Mount Forest, Ontario. She was already married in 1871, and was alive in Mount Forest in 1883.
 - b. Arnold P., born in 1845, married, before 1871, Henrietta (surname unknown). She was born in Massachusetts, U. S. A., in 1850. Arnold died 14 January, 1896, aged 51 years. His wife died 3 Sept., 1921, aged 71 years. Both lie buried in Cataract Cemetery.
Known children were:
 1. Roberta, born in 1868.
 - c. Frances H., born in 1849; she married John McLaren, of Mount Forest, whom she evidently met while visiting her sister, Mrs. Yeomans. She died there 6 March, 1873, aged 25 years, 7 months, 11 days, after a brief marital venture, seeing that she was unmarried in 1871, and residing in Odessa.
4. Mary Eleanor, born in 1816, and died in 1888. She married Parker Smith, son of Conrad Timmerman. Her husband, born in 1820, and died in 1897, was the first postmaster in Odessa.
Their known children were:
 - a. Eliza Ann, married James Watts.
 - b. Cecilia, married James Denyes.
 - c. Alice, married Dyon Derbyshire.
 - d. Albert, married Miss Emery.
 - e. Wellington, married Miss Davis.
 - f. John R., a bachelor, postmaster in Odessa.
 - g. Loretta, married J. H. Henry.
 - h. Henry Pultz, married, first, Isabella Ward, second, Alice Drinkwater.
 - i. Charles, married Mary Winters.
5. Joshua (see below).
6. John Kirby, born in 1823; married 14 Jan., 1851, Emma J Blagg (called daughter of the Widow Fry), who was born in England about 1824. They resided in Odessa, where John K. was proprietor of a woollen factory, grist and sawmills. In 1871 he was called a farmer. Emma J. died 26 Apr., 1892, and lies buried in Cataract Cemetery. John K. was alive in 1892.

BOOTHs of KINGSTON and ERNESTTOWN.

Their children were (as found in the Census of 1861 and 1871):

- a. Rosamond, born in 1851.
- b. Frederick, born in 1852.
- c. Charles, born in 1854, and died in 1918. Married 4 Nov., 1896, at Odessa, Gertrude Alma Hogle, born 15 Sept., 1873, and died in 1900. They resided in Montreal, Que.
Their two children were:
 1. John Murray, born 12 Nov., 1898.
 2. Edwin William, born 12 Dec., 1899.
- d. George, born in 1856.
- e. James, born in 1859, and died before 1871.
- f. Ethel, born in 1860; married, as second wife, Harold Storms, M. D., of Hamilton, Ont.
She died in 1951, in her nineties.
- g. Caroline E., born in 1862, and died 9 Dec., 1867. (There is no proof regarding this child, but it is presumed that she belongs here).
- h. Helen, born in 1864.
7. Donald Bedell, born in 1829-30; married 20 June, 1861, Caroline, daughter of George Tryer Miller. He died 27 April, 1895. The Ancey Diary states "dropped dead at the spring while getting a pail of water."
In 1865 he was classed as a general merchant in Odessa. Latterly he was referred to as a doctor-druggist.
Nothing further is known of this family.

Joshua BOOTH (see above), son of Benjamin BOOTH and Catharine Dorland, was born in Millhaven in 1819, and removed to Odessa with his parents while yet a young man. He married, 31 Dec., 1844, Lavina, daughter of Darius Smith, of Ernesttown. During his short life he operated the Odessa Woollen Mill, and is referred to in records as a manufacturer and clothier. He died suddenly in November, 1864, from eating water hemlock. His widow, with the aid of her father and son, carried on the family business until her death in 1900. The following obituary copied from the Napanee Beaver is very revealing:

"June 8th, 1900.

The remains of Mrs. Joshua Booth were brought to Odessa Thursday last and the funeral was held from the home of her son Albert Booth on Friday."

"June 22, 1900.

Lavina Smith, relict of the late Joshua Booth, Odessa, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hendry, Drayton, Ont., Wednesday, May 30, aged 77 years. She was a daughter of the late D. C. Smith, of Ernesttown. About thirty-five years ago her husband and little daughter Nellie died from eating water hemlock in mistake for spignet.

Her second son Henry died soon after his father and in a few weeks their woollen factory was destroyed by fire. This was rebuilt by her father with improved machinery. Her only son, B. A. Booth, has carried on the business since.

A third child is Mrs. E. Lake, of Chicago.

Burial took place at Cataract.

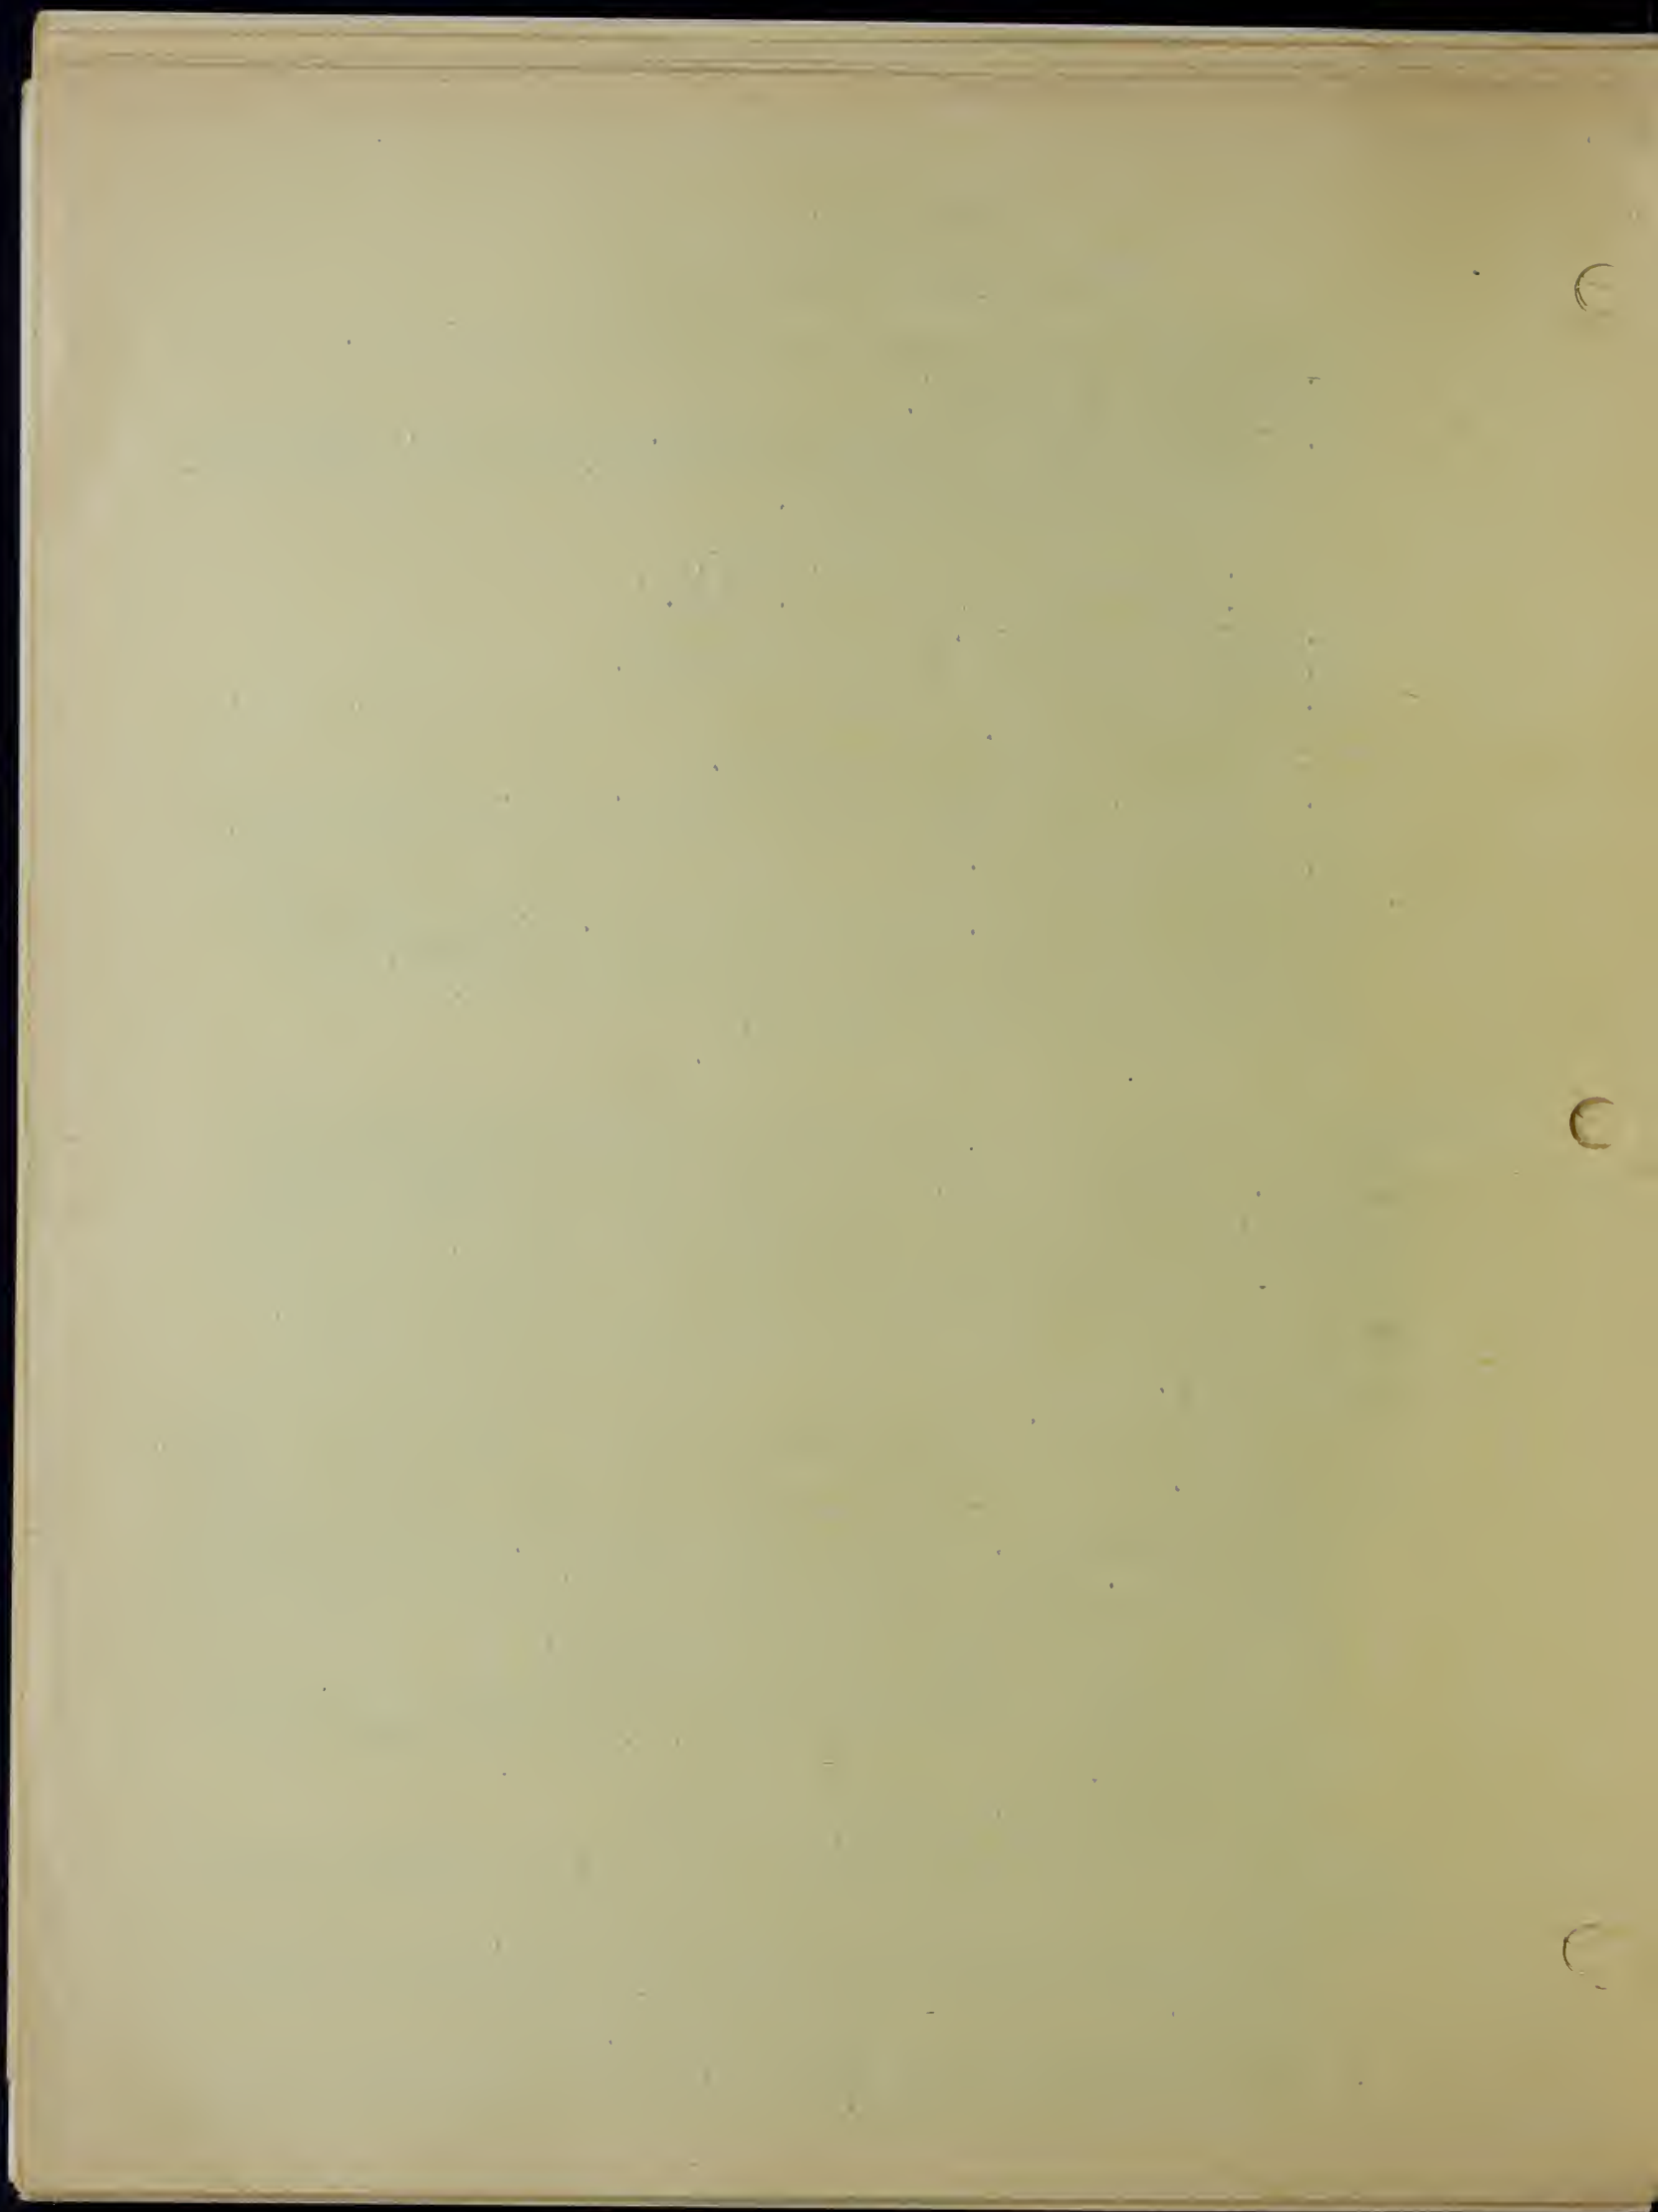

A gravestone in the Cataract Methodist Church Cemetery, Cataract, contains these words:

Joshua Booth, died 26 November, 1864, aged 45 years.

Mary Ellen, his daughter, died 26 Nov., 1864, aged 7 years, 6 months, 9 days.

John Henry, son of J. & L. Booth, died 4 Jan., 1866.

William Henry, son of D. C. Smith, Esq., died 18 Aug., 1862, aged 32 years, 1 month and 13 days.

BOOTHIS of KINGSTON and ERNESTTOWN.

Mr. Giddy, an aged resident of Odessa, made the statement that the Booth family went bankrupt three times, following the sudden death of Joshua in 1864. The first followed the fire in 1866. Joshua's father-in-law came to the rescue and rebuilt the factory, installing new machinery. The second was relieved by the action of Nelson Booth, a grandson of Joshua, and son of Benjamin Albert. The third resulted in the sale of the business when Benjamin Albert sold out in 1912-3 and removed to Gananoque.

Children of Joshua Booth and Lavina Smith were:

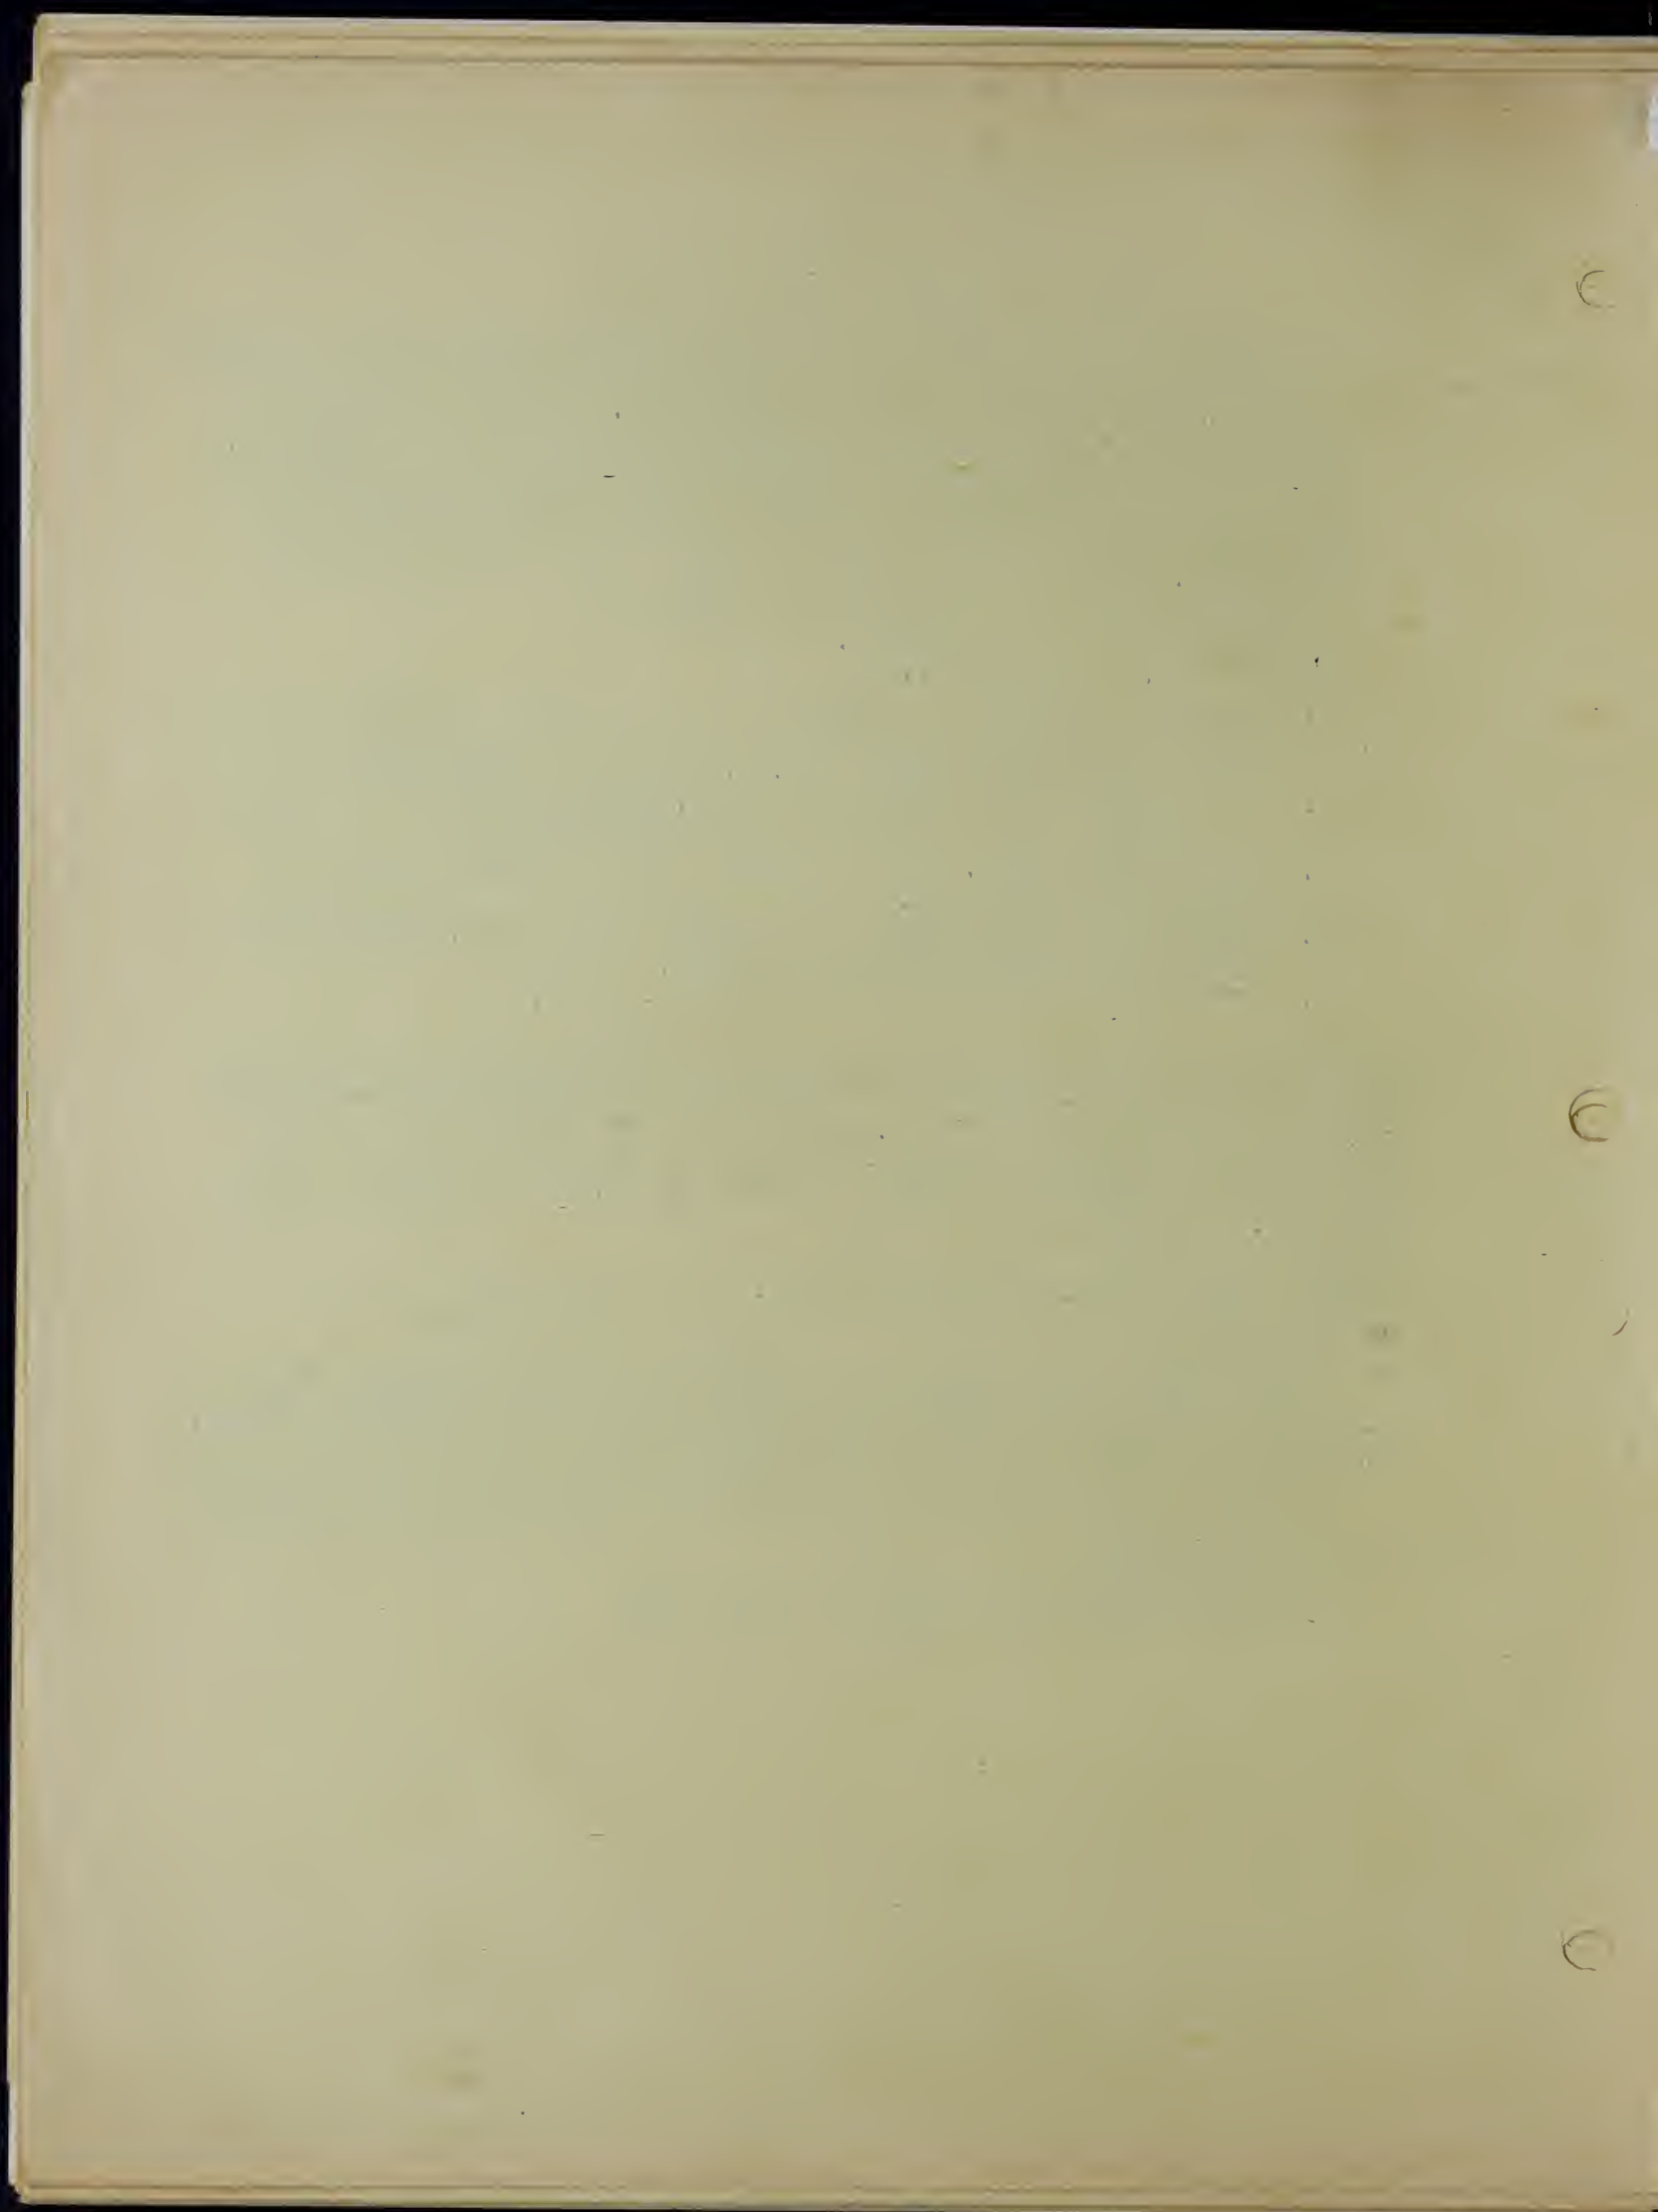

1. Benjamin Albert (see below).
2. Sophia B., born in 1848.
3. Lacy, or Alicia, born in 1850
One of the above-named daughters married Charles Hendry, of Drayton, Ontario; the other married Mr. E. Lake, of Chicago, Ill.
4. Donald, born 4 Oct., 1851, died 7 Jan., 1853, aged 1 year, 3 months and 3 days, and was buried in Ernesttown Cemetery.
5. James, born in 1853. His name appeared in the census records of 1861, but not in 1871.
6. Elmer (Mary Ellen), born 19 May, 1857, died 26 Nov., 1864, from eating water hemlock with her father.
7. John Henry, born about 1859, died 4 Jan., 1861.

Benjamin Albert, (see above) son of Joshua & Lavina Booth, was born in 1845. He continued, with his mother, in operation the Odessa Woollen Mills. He sold out the Booth interests in the Odessa Mills in, or shortly before, 1913, and removed to Gananoque, Ontario.

He married, in 1869-70, Anna Maria, daughter of Mr. S. H. Venton, a farmer of Odessa. She was born about 1851.

Known children were:

1. John, born in 1871. No further record.
2. Rosamond, born about 1872, married Edward Samuel Shepherd.
A daughter,
Eena, married Edward Connolly, of 2957 Sherwin Ave., Chicago, Ill.
3. Helena, married John Gardiner, of Odessa. She died in Kingston, in 1964.
4. Nelson, married, 21 Sept., 1897, Elizabeth Wood, of New York City, N. Y.
It is said that he removed to New York about the time when automobiles were first made. He became successful in the manufacture of felt gaskets for gas engines.
It is said that he had a son,
a. Edwin, of 417 Park Avenue, New York City.

23 Sept., 1963.

Mrs. Clinton E. Martin,
2505 North Martin Road,
McHenry, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Martin:

Herewith the notes on the Booth Family. I am sorry that I have been so slow in forwarding them to you. I trust that they are satisfactory. At the same time, I realize that there is much which is lacking in them.

The lone reference to Tremere is something. It definitely locates him in the vicinity of the Booths. It also tells us that John's widow and children remained in Ernesttown after his death.

It was a satisfaction to discover John Booth's birthdate. It is very evident that he died quite young, as he did not have time to apply for his 200 acres as son of Josina. It is possible that he died before John C. Clark began his diary in November, 1831.

There are still many loopholes to be plugged before all the information on the John Booth-William Tremere can be unearthed. These include the following:

1. Search for the old Booth Family Bible.
2. Search at the local Registry Office in Napanee for land transfers, wills, etc., involving lands owned by these people. If it were possible to discover the land on which John Booth lived, the items would pinpoint the date of death, and possibly his will. A search of entries re the Tremere farm would reveal when he sold it, which might indicate when he removed to U. S. A.
3. A search of the census of 1851 and 1861 for these names in Ernesttown would reveal much I am sure. These records are in Ottawa and are on microfilm. I employ a researcher to make such investigation. The usual rate per hour is $2.00.
4. I have searched all local cemeteries(I copied them years ago), and there is nothing there of value.

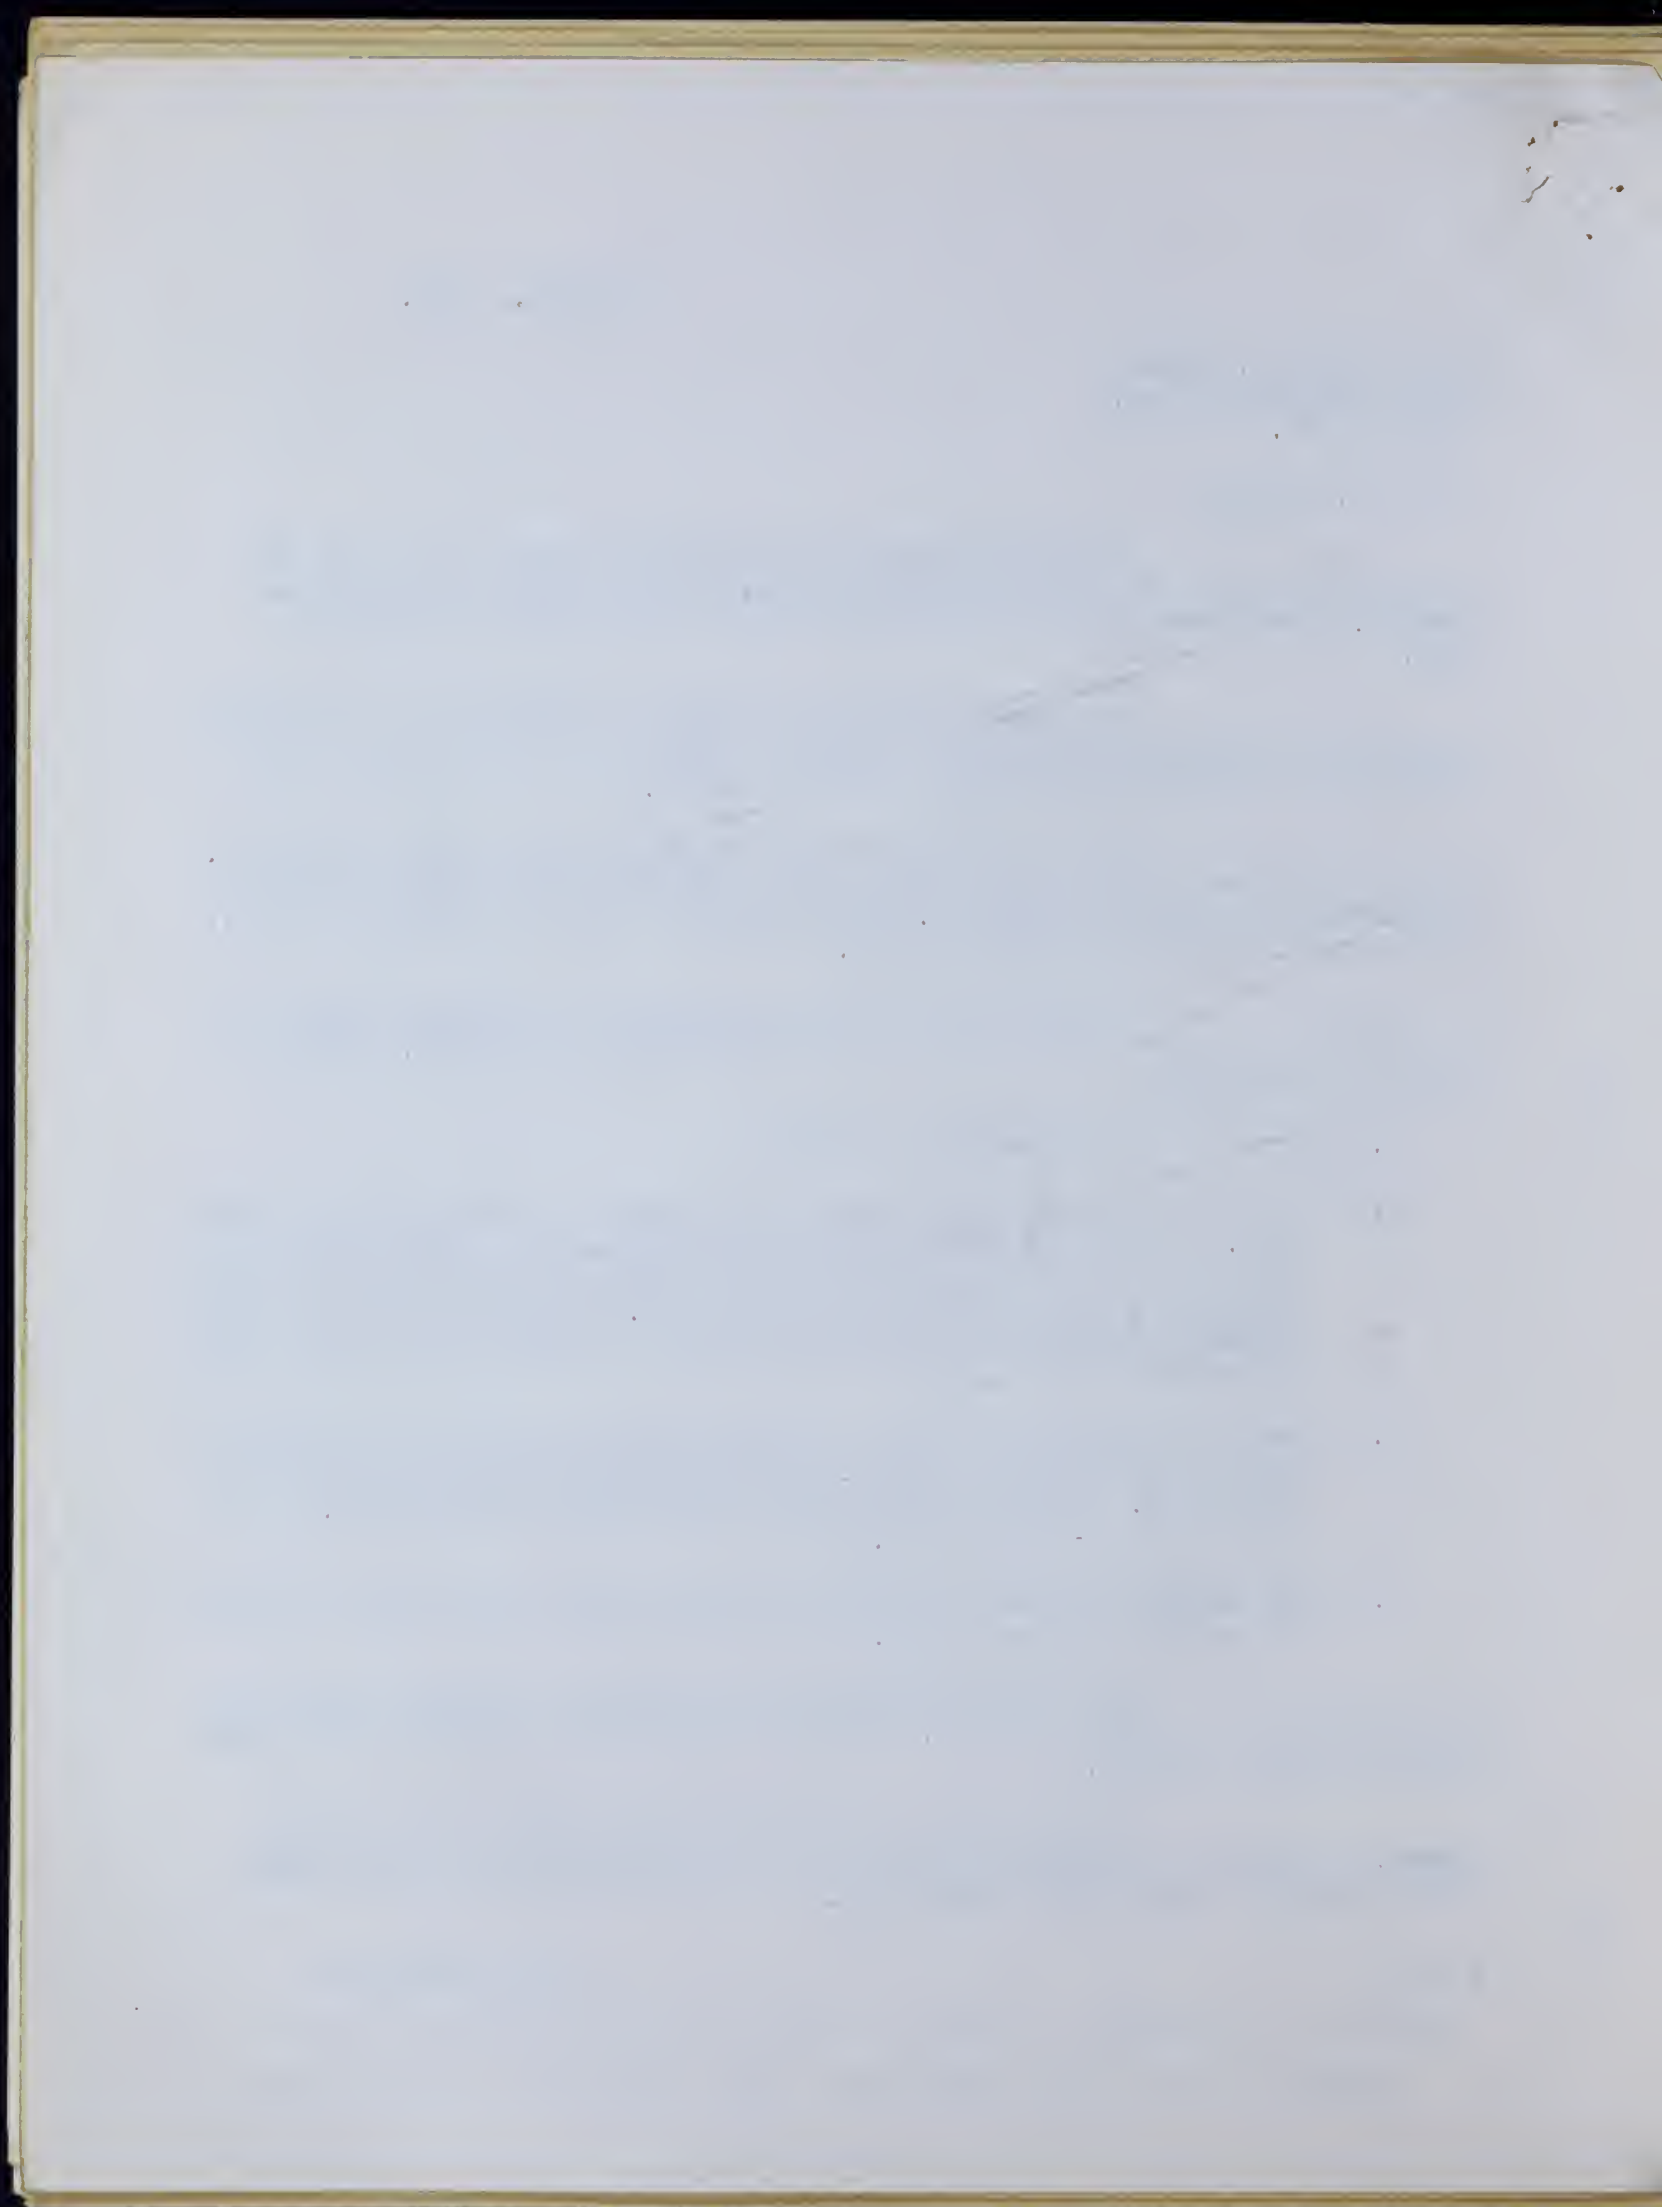

I am often reminded of the words of a friend of mine, one also interested in family research. He says: "You can find anything if you know where to look." How true!

I trust that you will feel well repaid by the attached papers. If there is anything which you do not understand, please let me know. I have retained a copy for my Booth file.

Yours sincerely,

His children were:

1. Charles, born 14 Feb., 1689; died 28 Dec., 1771, aged 80 years, 5 months, 5 days.
2. David. No issue.

Charles BOOTH, son of Charles BOOTH (see above), married Mary, sister of Thomas Goldsmith, at Southwold, Long Island. She died at Southwold 13 April, 1741. This Charles Booth, having purchased, at the time of his wife's decease, a large real estate in the Town of Wallkill, then in Ulster County, now in Orange County, New York, a few days thereafter, together with his brother-in-law, Goldsmith, and their children, left Southwold, and moved to the said Town of Wallkill, where he continued to reside until his death in 1771.

His children were:

1. Mary, born 26 Feb., 1713-14. She married a Mr. Harris.
2. Charles, born 11 May, 1716.
3. George, born 7 Sept., 1722.
4. John, born 3 Oct., 1724.
5. Benjamin, born 16 Dec., 1728.
6. Ann, born 23 March, 1731-32.

Benjamin BOOTH, son of Charles BOOTH (see above), died 30 May, 1783, in his 55th year, and left surviving four sons and two daughters:

1. Joshua.
2. Thomas.
3. Jesse.
4. Benjamin.
5. Mary, born 25 Sept., 1771; married Samuel Watkins of Wallkill.
6. Nelly, died without issue.

Joshua BOOTH, son of Benjamin BOOTH (see above) married. His children are unknown, as he lived and died at Kingston in Upper Canada.

SONS and DAUGHTERS of a U. E. LOYALIST.

Through the efforts of an employe of the Archives of Ontario, applications of the children of Loyalists were arranged by families. Thus, this page gives the names of all children of Joshua BOOTH who applied for land. It should be noted that the Legislative Council authorized the granting of 200 acres to each child of a Loyalist. The sons were entitled to this land when they reached the age of twenty-one. Daughters were entitled to the same amount when they reached twenty-one, or when they married.

JOSHUA BOOTH, United Empire Loyalist.

Joshua Booth, born in 1758 or 1759, the son of Benjamin Booth, served in the British Army in the Revolutionary War. Details of his service are unknown, except that he was discharged in the rank of Sergeant. His father, also a Loyalist, died in New York City on 30 May, 1783, in his 55th year. Joshua and his younger brother, Jesse, appear in Ontario records as members of the first party to settle in Kingston Township. There is no further record of Jesse. He may have died or returned to United States.

Joshua must have removed to Ernesttown, the adjacent township to the west, through the influence of his wife's family, which had settled in Ernesttown in 1784. It is evident that Joshua & Margaret were married very shortly after 1784, as they were parents of three children--Abraham, Benjamin and Sarah--all born before 1792, when their fourth child was born (see page 3).

Joshua became an important person in the new settlement. He is recorded as a member of the District Land Board in 1787 and later. He served on several occasions as representative for persons applying for land. He was also a Captain in the Addington Militia, and was serving in that capacity when he died. The Military "C" Series, to be found in the Public Archives, is the following:

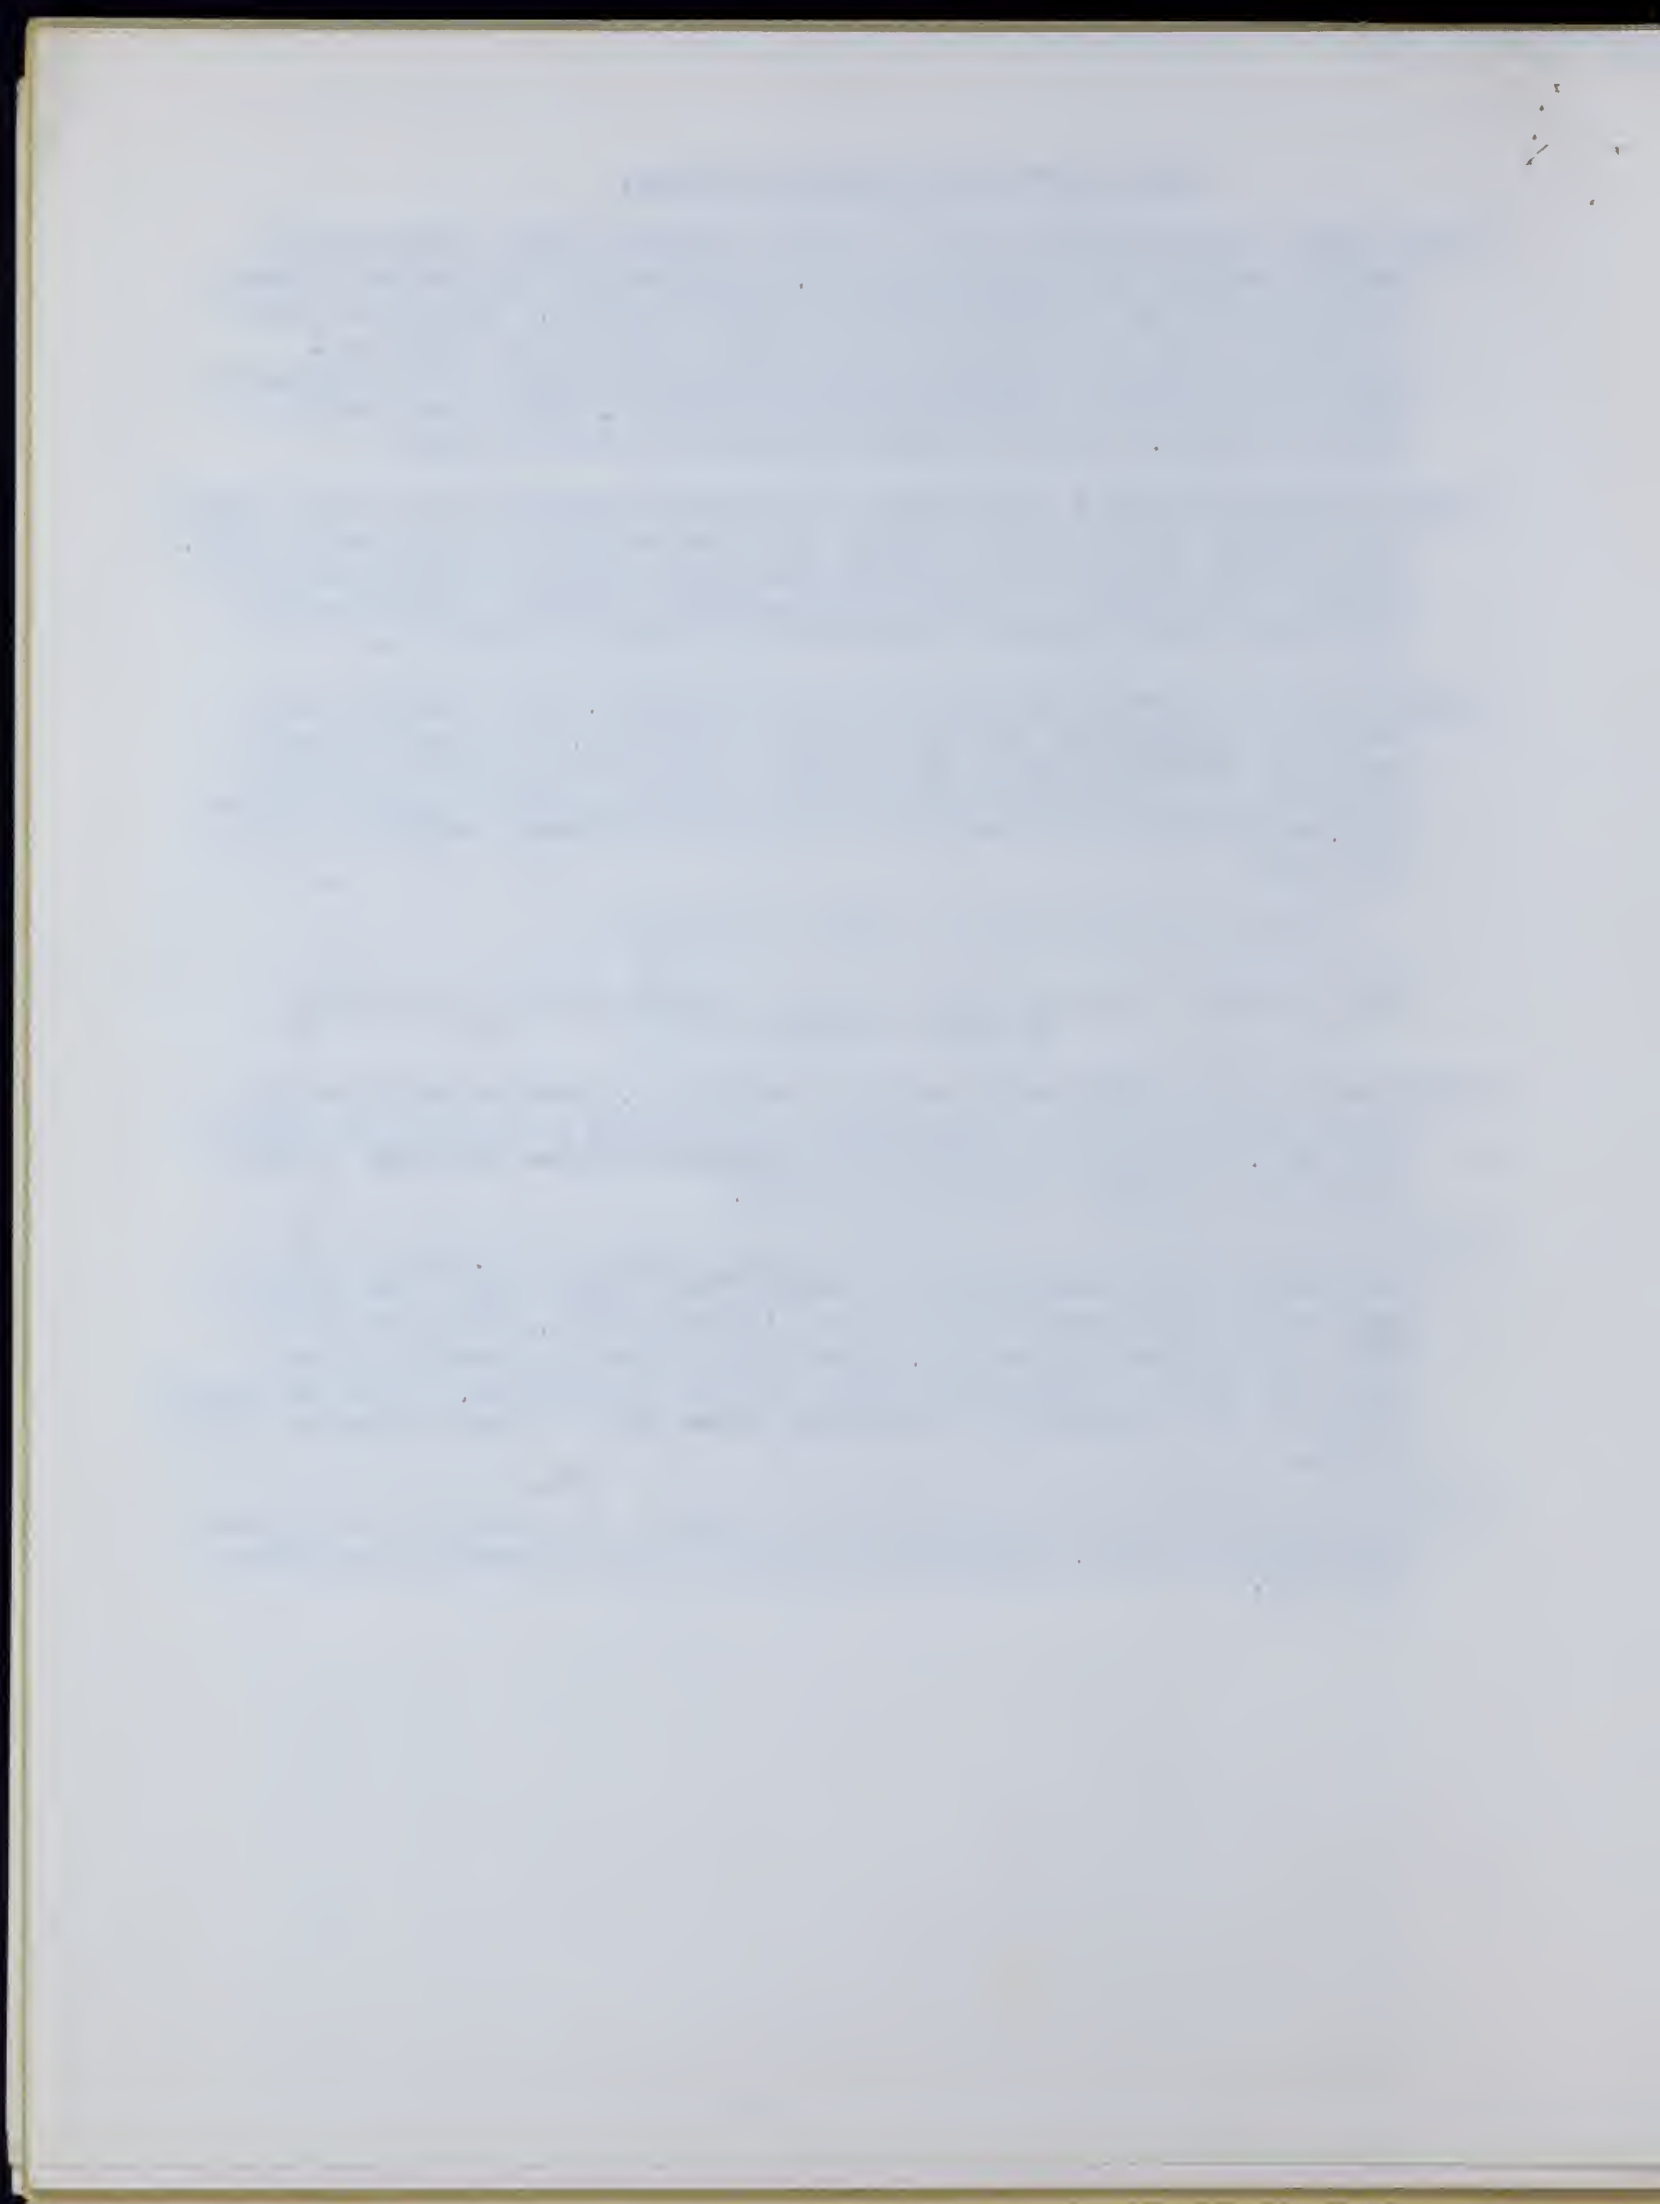

List of Widows Admitted as Militia Pensioners.

Booth, Margaret Joshua Booth, Captain, Addington Militia, a Casualty on Duty, 27 October, 1813.

Joshua and his sons turned early to mill construction. There is evidence that he was operating a mill at the mouth of Mill Creek, at what is now known as Millhaven. His sons, at a later date, operated mills at the falls on Mill Creek, in a community now known as Odessa.

John Booth, your ancestor, was definitely born 23 August, 1800. Little more is discoverable (at present) from the Booth file, except that he was already dead before 1844, when Clark wrote his 'Reminiscences.' This same Clark kept a diary from 1831 to 1864. It contains numerous references to the Booth family, but nothing about John, his wife or children. I have not copied it because it had nothing to add except about the collateral branches of your family.

You will be interested in the item on William Tremere. The Directory of 1865 does not contain his name. Evidently he had sold the lot granted to him before that date.

HISTORY OF LENNOX AND ADDINGTON COUNTY.

by

Walter S. Herrington.

SERGEANT JOSHUA BOOTH.

Member of the Legislative Assembly of Upper Canada, 1792-6.

Addington and the islands along the lake front were united as one electoral district at the time of Mr. Booth's election in 1792. He had served as a sergeant during the Revolutionary War, and was among the first refugees to settle in Ernesttown. He followed the occupation of a farmer and miller, and is credited with having built the first grist-mill erected in the township of Ernesttown. He lived and died on lot number forty in the first concession, and the mill was erected on the creek not far from Millhaven. He became a large landowner and built several other mills; and it was from the mills built by his son, Benjamin, at Odessa that that village derived its first name of Mill Creek. He was regarded as one of the most prominent and prosperous men in the county; and the many families of Booths that have lived in different parts of this county and have generally been engaged in the milling business are all descendants of this, the first member for the district of Addington and Ontario. He was a justice of the peace and a member of the court of requests for the Ernesttown Division. He died very suddenly in 1813, at the age of fifty-four, leaving a widow and ten children.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory of the structure of the atom. The second part is devoted to a detailed analysis of the results of the experiments of Rutherford and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The third part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Bohr and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The fourth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Heisenberg and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The fifth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Schrödinger and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The sixth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Dirac and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The seventh part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Pauli and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The eighth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Fermi and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The ninth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Einstein and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The tenth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of de Broglie and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The eleventh part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Compton and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The twelfth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Davisson and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The fourteenth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Millikan and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The fifteenth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Barkla and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The sixteenth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Moseley and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The seventeenth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Röntgen and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The eighteenth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Becquerel and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The nineteenth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Curie and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom. The twentieth part is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of Rutherford and his colleagues. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the theory of the structure of the atom.

CLARK'S REMINISCENCES, 1844.

Written by John C. Clark, a neighbor of the Booths.

BOOTH.

Dear Dr. Buleigh:

I have just read your Henry Simmons article in the U.E.L. Gazette.
 and am wondering if you have enough genealogical facts concerning Simmons of Ernestown area — Wilton district.
 to fill in the blanks below concerning a later Dutch family, children of carpenter from Albany N.Y. to 'Florida' south of Wilton.
 Nicholas Timmerman.

Mercy Timmerman 1810-1900 = Hiram Walker m. 1865 Port Con 2 lot 14 f
 1865 Emilt Con 4 lot 31
 Henry Timmerman = Mary Redden second generation U.E.L.
 1865 Redford Con 4 lot 4
 George Timmerman 1813 = Elizabeth Walker " U.E.L.
 1865 Redford Con 4 lot 4
 ——— Timmerman = ——— Simmons
 Parker Smith Timmerman 1820-1897 = Mary Eleanor Booth 3rd generation 1865 Emilt Con 4 lot 32 U.E.L.

I have heard that the late Guy Simmons of Odessa area. had a Timmerman mother. Mercy is buried at Wilton, George moved to Desert Lake and has descendants at Verona. — one of them is a fifth generation carpenter. and luckily Parker, who I think was named after a neighbour, is well written up in Herrington.

Two Thanksgivings ago I was passing through Odessa, and took a few minutes to find Catherine Dorland. stone-1838? Mrs. Benj. Booth.
 in old Ernestown cemetery.

I wish that I was more interested in genealogy of our family even five years ago while more old folk were still alive and while I was still living in Eastern Ontario. I was lucky enough to meet and get to know. Mary Eleanor Timmerman, Mrs. Henry Day, widow of a Kingston doctor, — and first cousin to my grandmother Harriet Derbyshire — 1928. — I never knew my grandmother for I was not born until 1936.

Dear Dr. Burleigh.

Thank you very much for your reply. about Timmons and Timmerman marriages of the 1840's (or before) plus all the other interesting facts concerning old in-laws. Walker and Redden.

Since - I cannot be of much help to you fact wise,
I enclosed a tip. Oh! I forgot that, you being part Walker, may be interested in knowing what I know. I have listed some names on the next page.

Ensign John Booth, of Southwold, Long Island, was an inhabitant of that place on 7 June, 1689. He was one of the grantees of Shelter Island. Ensign Booth died between 27 June, 1689, and June, 1690.

His children were:

1. Thomas.
- ✓ + 2. Charles, born —; died 3 Dec., 1700 (see below).
3. William, born —; died 11 March, 1722.
4. John, born —; died 17 Dec., 1704.

Charles Booth, son of Ensign John Booth.

His children were:

1. Charles, born 14 Feb., 1689; died 28 Dec., 1771, aged 80 years, 5 months, 5 days. (see below).
2. David. No issue.

Charles Booth, son of Charles Booth, married Mary, sister of Thomas Goldsmith, at Southwold, Long Island. She died at Southwold 13 April, 1741. This Charles Booth, having purchased, at the time of his wife's decease, a large real estate in the Town of Wallkill, then in Ulster County, now in Orange County, New York, a few days thereafter, together with his brother-in-law, Goldsmith, and their children, left Southwold, and moved to the said Town of Wallkill, where he continued to reside until his death in 1771.

His children were:

1. Mary, born 26 Feb., 1713-14. She married a Mr. Harris.
2. Charles, born 11 May, 1716.
3. George, born 7 Sept., 1722.
4. John, born 3 Oct., 1724.
5. Benjamin, born 16 Dec., 1728 (see below).
6. Ann, born 23 March, 1731-32.

Benjamin Booth, son of Charles Booth, died 30 May, 1783, in his 55th year, and left surviving four sons and two daughters:

1. Joshua (see below)
2. Thomas.
3. Jesse. ((Loyalist - my note))
4. Benjamin.
5. Mary, born 25 Sept., 1771; married Samuel Watkins of Wallkill.
6. Nelly, died without issue.

Joshua Booth, son of Benjamin Booth married. His children are unknown, as he lived and died at Kingston in Upper Canada.

One descendant of Joshua Booth. Nelson Booth of Odessa left Odessa in the early days of the car industry and moved to New York City where he made money making felt gaskets for the car industry.

Note by R. P. Smart. — No Booth Surnames in Ernesttown today (1964) but a few descendants left.

Joshua Booth. — 30 Oct. 1813. age 55.

leaving a widow, former Margaret Fraser, daughter of Daniel of Ernesttown.

Dear Dr Burleigh:

Should have written you before this, but things just have been in the way the past couple of weeks. I thought by now I would have heard from Mrs S pencer, and have more information to send you - of course some people take long vacations and she may be out of town.

I have gone backwards and forwards over the Booth information I have, and no where do I find a son John for Joshua Booth. Also, you do not list him among the children of Joshua that you sent me. And apparently according to all the notes I've made, I find no reference to any John. The children I list for Joshua, who is son of Benjamin are:

1. Abraham
2. Sarah married 9/5/1808 Daniel Bedell Dorland
3. Benjamin married either 11/9/1809 or 8/27/1809 Catherine Dorland
4. Joshua Jr marriedDailey - I also have a Joshua who married a Sarah Taylor.
5. Mary married Philip Daley
6. Hester Taylor married 11/15/1812 James Stalker (Some Stalkers used to live in Clayton but I've never been able to determine if it was from this family.)
7. Harriott Rebecca married I think ??? 7/4/1832 Geo. W. Baldwin
8. Charles Andrew - single in 1844
9. Eleanor married first ...Phelps MD, second, George Hamilton.

I did this without looking at the list you sent recently and I find it compares in all respects with yours.

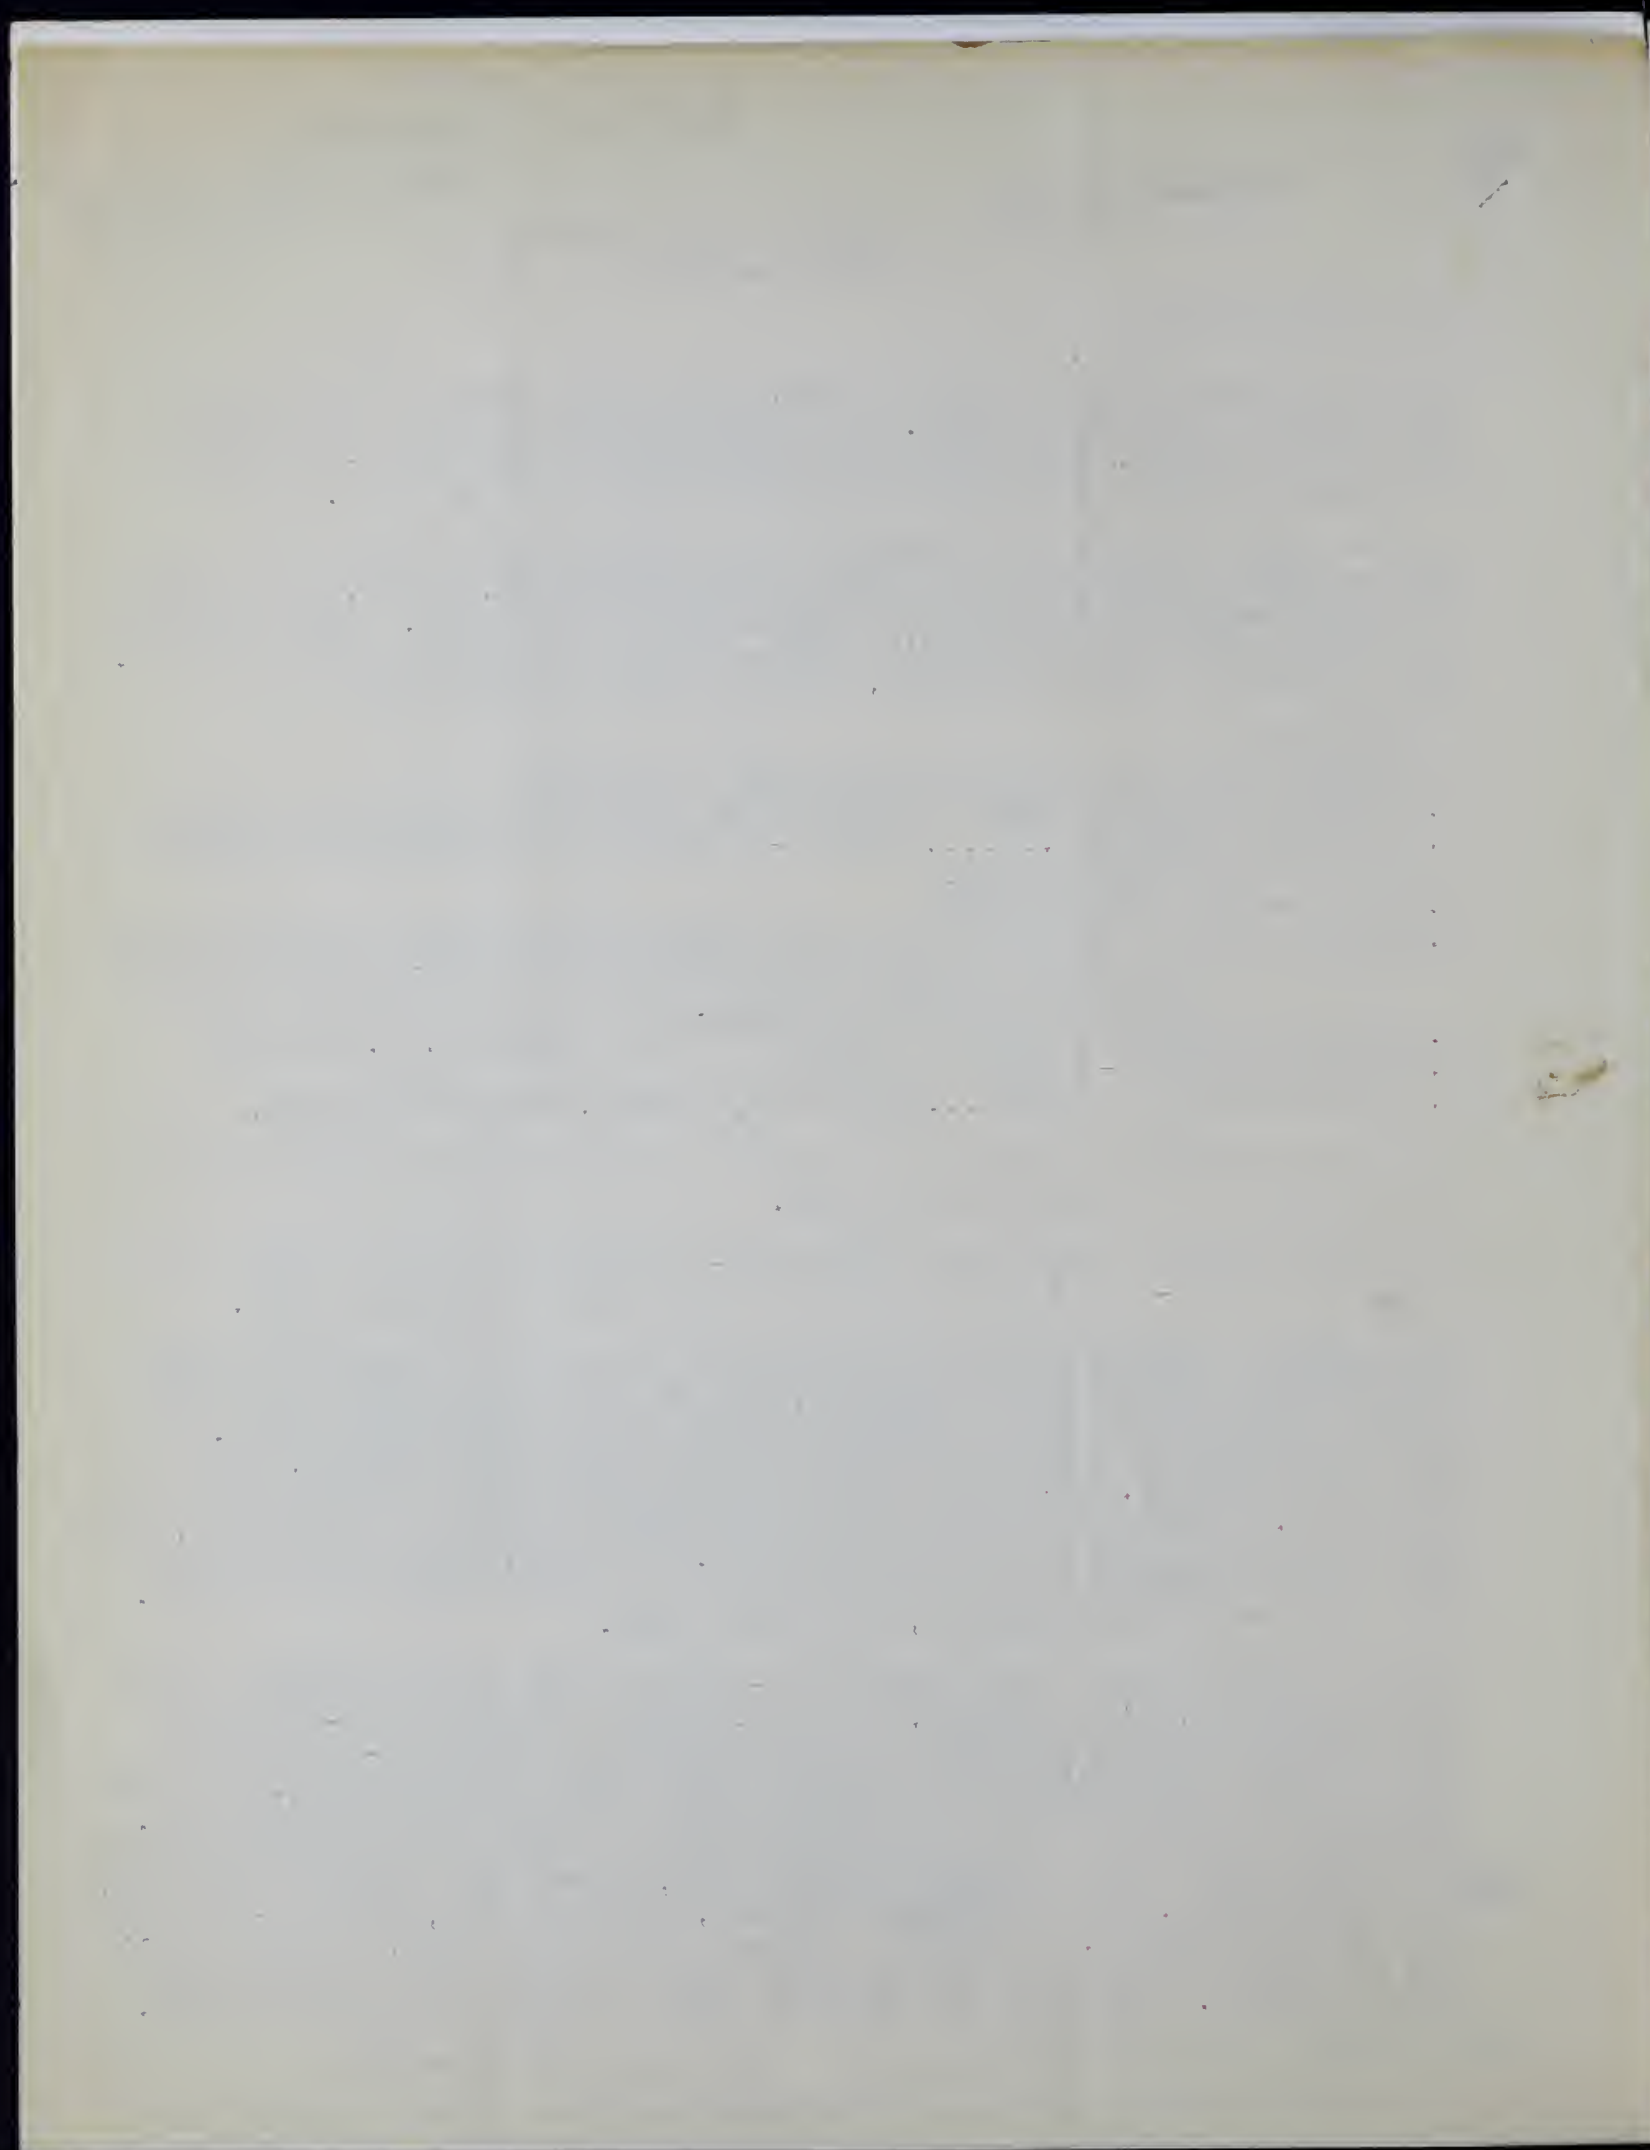

I do have the two dates for Benjamin - the one you give is the one I originally had - the other was added later with a question mark.

Sam arranged things this past weekend so he would work with the NYAB distributor in Newark NJ on Monday, but we went down Saturday to the Easter Federation Gem and Mineral Show at the Robert Treat Hotel. It was not as good a show as the one at Lake Placid last summer, and we were disappointed. He hopes now we can go to Bancroft about the middle of August. During his vacation, which begins the end of this week, we hope to spend a couple of days in Maine. However, I hope to arrange some sort of schedule so that we also get to Canada and stop at Bath. But with the Williams family, you never know.

Sorry I can't help on the Booth bit - and as soon as Mrs Spencer sends me information, I'll forward. Oh yes, meant to tell you - I was at the Syracuse library for three hours about ten days ago - I hoped to look up the 1860 Livingston Co census for Wunda and Mt Morris, but some woman had it tied up - the microfilm reader I mean the whole darn PM. The best I could do at the last minute was go through the Livingston Co directory for 1868. I found Winslow Howe, farmer 50, in Hunt's Hollow, town of Portage, and in ~~XXXXXX~~ Oakland, William Howe, brewer - receives his mail at Portage. Frankly I did not get beyond that, so can't tell you if there was another William Howe there or not - it was time for room to close. But this may pinpoint one location there if it helps.

Ever and cordially

Bette Wilcox

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

My wife borrowed my pen for school work, and so I am starting to write with a straight pen. I did not write last week for a letter could become lost in a mail carriers' strike

Since you last wrote, we have moved four and a half miles closer to Bath. For the time being our bought bungalow is sufficient for space for our purposes.

Yes. Gwen Smart, Mrs. Rupert Howard is a second cousin of my father Dr. Robert E. Smart. Though we only lived about 2½ miles away from each other while I was growing up, we did not meet until Christmas week 1963. Since her brother Elfrant Smart of Westmount had a few family records, I correspond with him occasionally. When you say Gwen was a daughter of Sheriff, you are confusing her father Senator James Smart, with her grand-father the foundry man James Smart who started making pumps, frying-pans, and hammers about 1854, and became sheriff in 1870. Cousin Gwen's son in law Floyd Henry, is a member of the loyalist Lake family of your area.

And now for your questions, I shall try to answer to the best of my ability.

I learned from Mary Timmerman Day, that our relative Helena Booth Spardner passed away this winter in Providence Nursing Home? . She had no family for her husband died less than two years from their wedding day. By your chart, it seems that she is in the same generation as my grandmother and a closer relative than I thought. Being a second cousin. She inherited some money less than five years ago from her mother's side of the family.

6 August 1965.

After phoning Mary, to check on some further facts, and after ret ~~iding~~ my own pen. I can add that Helena had a brother Nelson, last of the Booth men to leave Odessa, who moved to New York City to manufacture felt rings or such for car parts in early days: he has one son and one daughter. Don't know names. Sister Rosamunde m. ——— and had one daughter Zeta ———. The daughter of Nelson Booth married ^{an Englishman} and moved to England?

(corner Elm)

Mary told me that Joseph Smith of Division Street, Kingston may know more. He could be a first cousin of Helena. Do you want me to write or is it necessary?

When I visited Kingston ^{Catarague} cemetery, I spoke to the keeper and had a glance at one or two Timmerman file cards. Each burial there has. age. date. cause of death. and location of plot. on card. Some day when I have an unplanned vacation, without dragging my wife, I should tour Catarague thoroughly. Sometimes. when travelling I can drop in to a sentimental spot for a quarter of an hour without her thinking me wasting time.

By the way, I have some info on loyalist families Seeley. Lamb. of Elizabethtown. Sherrill is ancestor ^{Captain.} John moved to Seeley Bay in 1826. and before 1859. resettled near Annprior ^{McNab XI.} after his first wife Mary Lamb died. Family tradition says that his second marriage was beneath his station for the younger kids did not have the upbringing of the older ones. By his will his wife was Marion.

If I am not pressed for time on 24 August. I may drop in to meet you on my way to Picton from Brockville, that afternoon. Yet I would like to visit two other people that afternoon also. and Sherrill wants time to see her friend Mrs. Vallean. in Picton besides about five other folk.

I drove from Renfrew to Otter Lake P.Q. one day. to chat with the genealogical authority for Ottawa Valley. Father Joseph Havelle. His father started the collection.

sincerely R. Philip Smart.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I wish I knew ^{from} what part of the American States that Joshua Booth came. At least I know that Daniel Fraser came from Pennsylvania. and Philip Dorland came from Hemstead. Long Island.

According to Loyalist notes of mine. John Booth son of Joshua was born in ~~23 August~~ 1800 - and this fits or jibes with the stone in Belleville: as dates are on the next page. I have no record of his Order in Court for Crown land. But if there were two Johns born in 1800, then I'm confused. You say he married Bristol. and then died 1830.

Mary Day, remembers of Clement Booth and a dressmaking wife. I'll keep my eyes open. concerning. Conrad Timmerman - 1859. I suspect that Nicholas T. may be buried in his own back yard, near Mud or Odessa Lake. - or perhaps in Wilton without a stone. I find stones scarce. before 1845 in most old cemeteries.

Of interest to Timmerman folk: (and according to cousin Mary T. Day. Horace Denyer of a farm near Napanee died 1964. - brother of Nell, Mrs. Ketchum. and Frank of Preston. whose mother was Cecelia Timmerman. Cecil Denyer, son of Horace married Dunlop. sister of Miss Doctor Dunlop of Ottawa. Bud Watts of Syracuse died about five years ago. The Walker family of Harrowmith are supposed to be descendants of Mercy Timmerman. This includes cheesemaker Craemer family of Glenvale. I just learned this yesterday.

A Doctor Walker of Chicago visited home. and the Craemer folk some years ago. and Mary & her husband - a doctor - were invited up for a visit to Glenvale.

One clue to the parents of Mary Simmons. In my notes on Simmons.
Henry willed ~~some~~ some land to Miles Simmons in 1872. (C622. memorial?) and Miles to Mary Simmons. (166 memorial 7556)

Concession 7 lot 41. was owned by Lillian & Mary Simmons c. 1917.
Ernesttown?

I shall try to contact an old relative of my grandmother's Helena Booth, Mrs. Gardner of Kingston and see if she knows any interesting items Her father was Albert, son of Joshua (junior?)

Did you know that the Benedict family were of Huguenot descent?
They left the silk weaving industry in France to take up wool weaving in Nottingham England. and the North American ancestor
Thomas arrived at Southold Long Island, 1637. - to remove to Norwalk Connecticut. I noticed that there were some Benedict folk married in Fredericksburg according to the Ontario Historical Society books.
Also. there was a family of Joseph Benedict near Portland; loyalists and my ancestor Samuel, arrived in Hull. P.Q. 1801. 'post-loyalist' via Vermont.

Some Booth notes are on the next sheet. I wish that I could have been less confusing about John & widow of Wilton 1897.
Old Mr. Harry?? Caton of Wilton knows and remembers alot. I bumped into him at Wilton Cemetery 1962. He actually remembered my grandparents wedding date without any prompting.

sincerely R. Philip Smart.

Mrs. Edw. Connolly,
2957 Sheridan Ave.,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Connolly:

Here is the result of my endeavours with regard to your background. I trust that it will meet with your approval, and that you will forgive typographical errors. You may well find misstatements. These, however, are not intentional, and may not be my fault, but rather of my informants.

Honestly, Mrs. Connolly, if I had known what I was letting myself in for when I agreed to do this for you, I would have locked the door and taken to the woods. However, it is done, thank God.

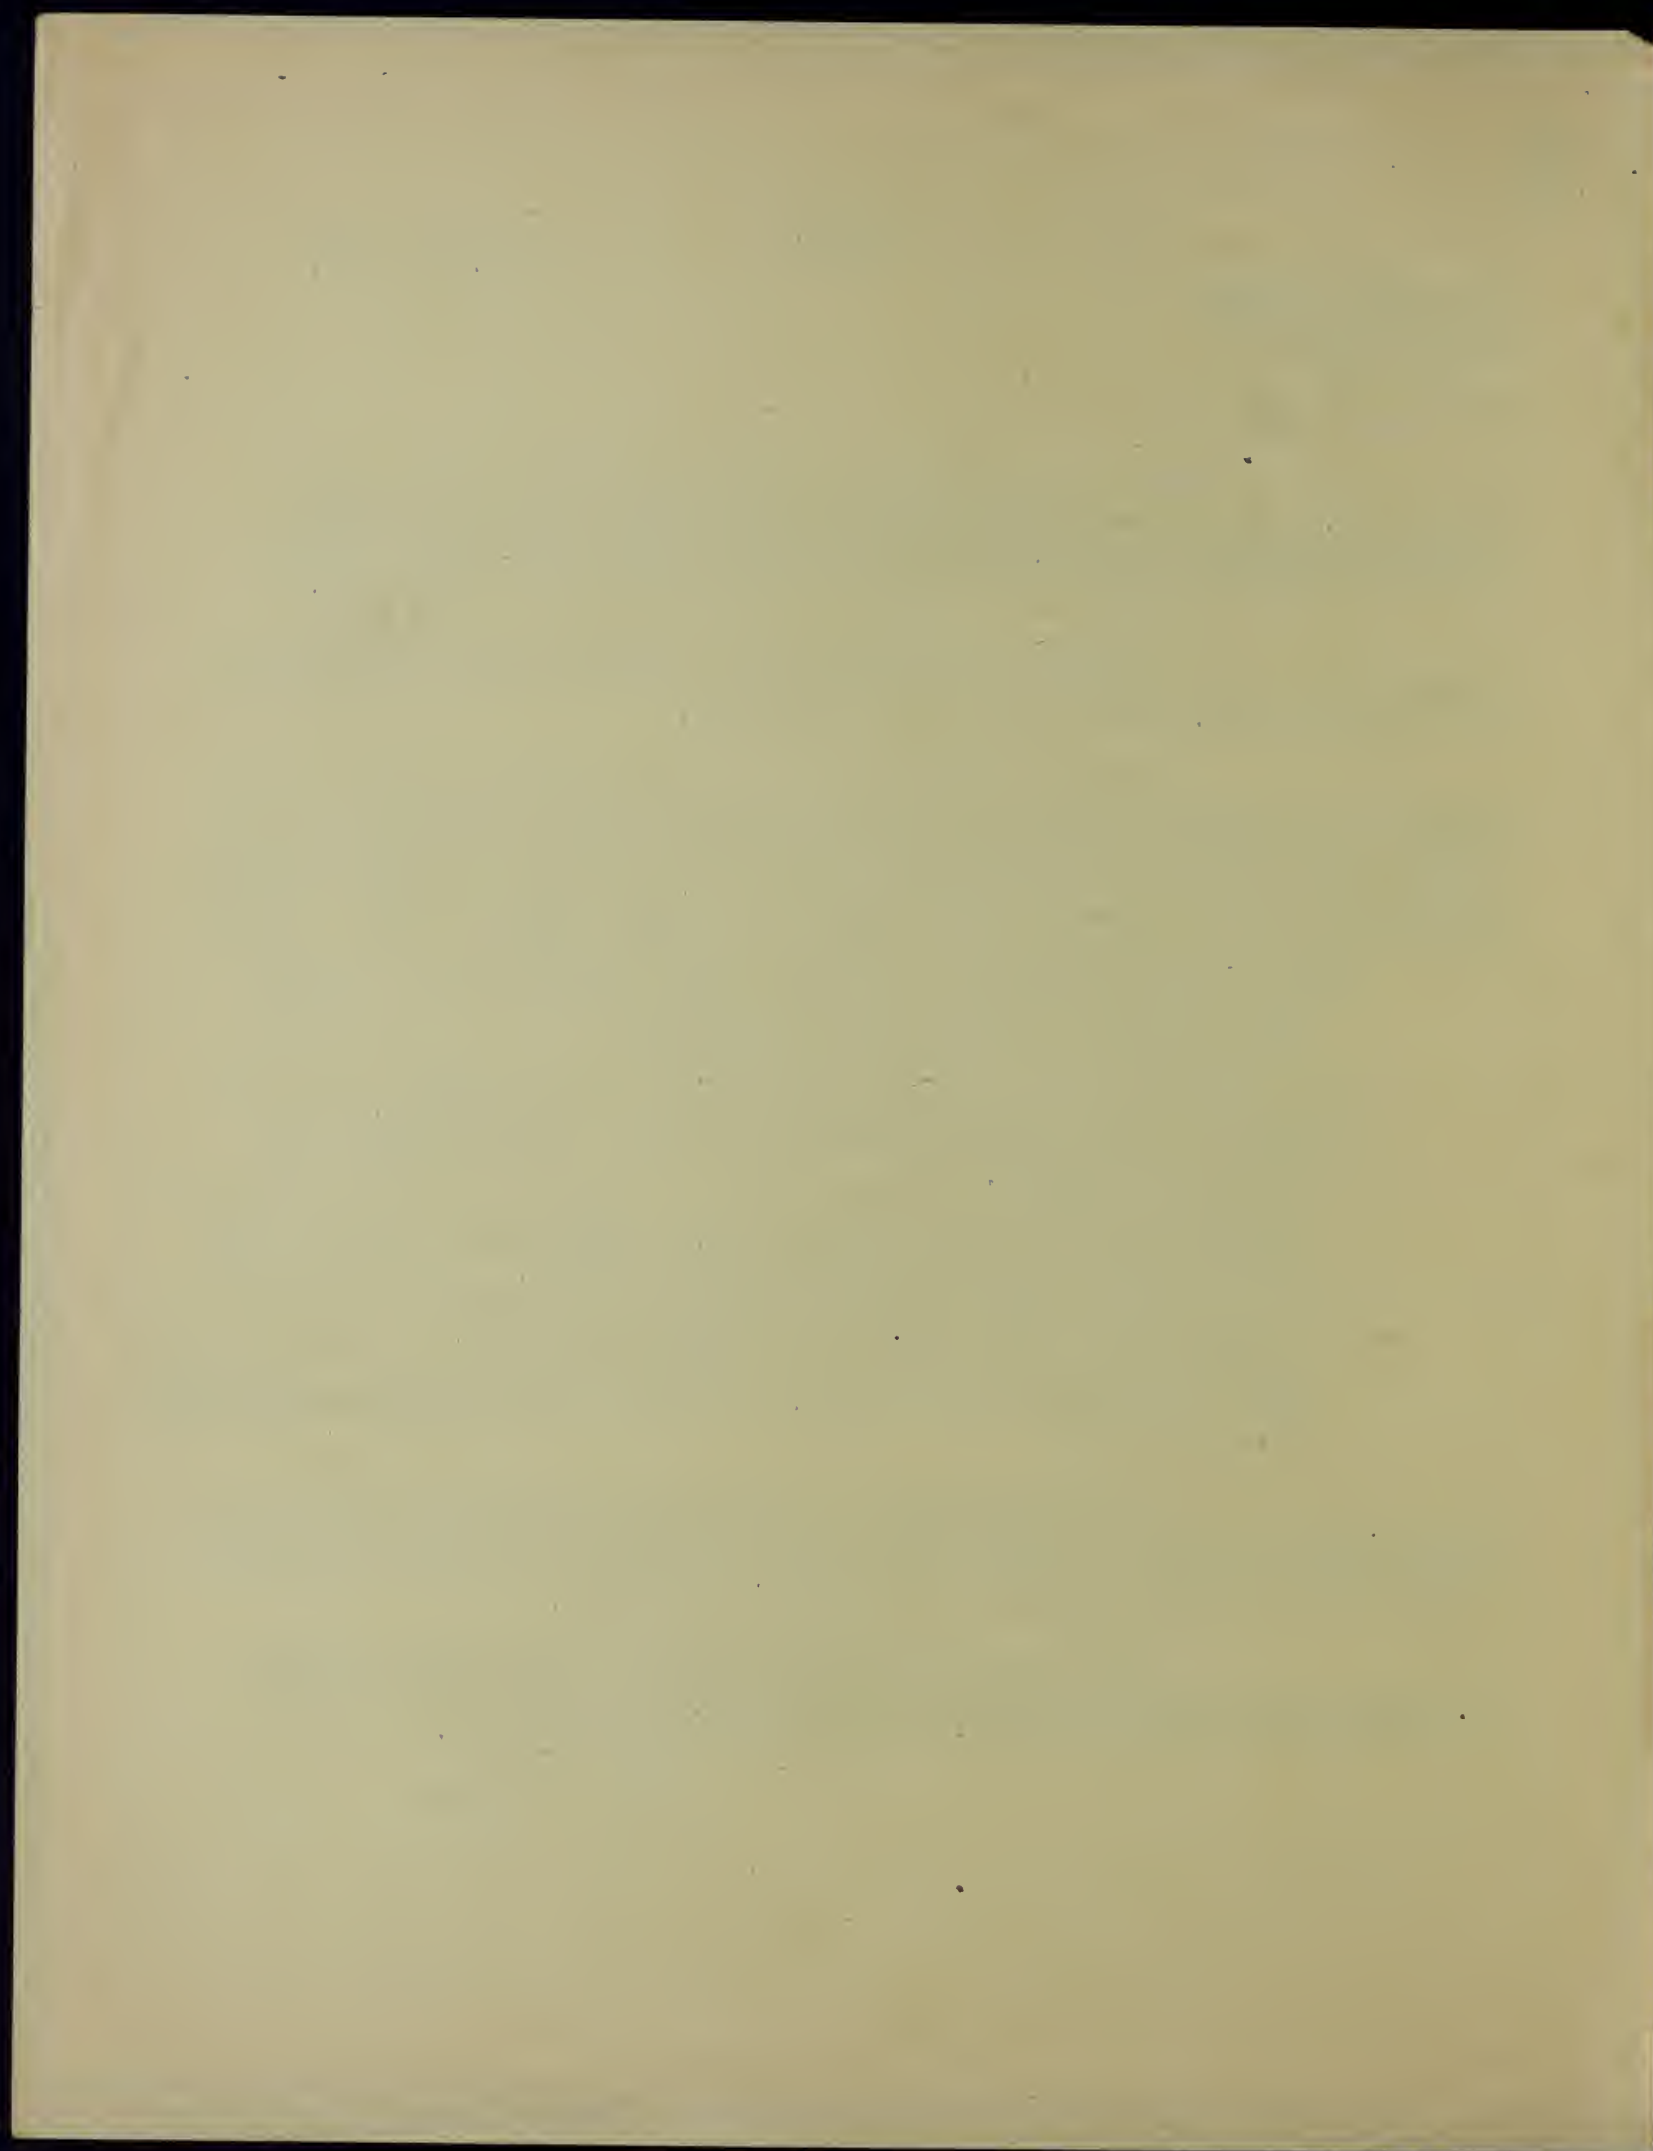

I know the generations of the Booth family down to, and including the children of Joshua, the Loyalist. What was hard to me were the succeeding generations. But, being familiar with the history of the County, I felt that my books would furnish me with the later Booth generations. I soon found out that there were far too many ifs and maybes. I then knew full well that I should have to do more investigating. This I shall outline, as follows:

- Trip to Registry Office and Surrogate Court, Napanee, where I was told that you had been there. Strangely enough, I found only one will, that of Joshua, Junior's brother, Philip D.
- Trip to Odessa to question some oldtimers. I had good result talking to old Mr. Ciddy who had been dye mixer for your grandfather.
- Visits to four cemeteries—Honesttown, Wilton, Cataract General, and Cataract Methodist.
- I had to go to Ottawa on another errand, so I took a day to look over the Census records of 1851, 1861 and 1871. I should never have been able to complete these genealogies without these records.
- The Booth Family Records I copied in Albany, N. Y., a number of years ago because it had given us two of our Loyalist families.
- I also looked into many reference books—Harrington's History of our County, Church Records of Bath, both Ch. of England, Lutheran and Presbyterian, etc., etc., etc.

Perhaps foolishly, I added notes on the distaff sides of these families. Somehow, I resent those people who are only interested in persons having their surname. I am interested in ALL my ancestors, no matter what their name. If they are of no interest to you, just tear them up.

If I can be of further assistance, please let me know. I have been a Booth in all my waking and sleeping hours for two weeks and more. A few more hours would do no harm. I leave compensation up to you.

Yours sincerely,

Napanee Beaver 1900

Dr. H.C. Burleigh
Bath, Ontario

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

We have been reading your book "Forgotten Leaves of Local History" with much interest and enjoyment.

We are interested in the area because of the Joshua Booth, UEL, family which settled in Ernestown. We have traced my husband's line of Booths back to John Booth of England who settled in Southold, Long Island in 1652. Joshua is a nephew of the John Booth, UEL, who came to Elizabethtown, Leeds County from Orange County, New York. My husband's line on his grandmother's side - Sarah Jane Boothe - is from this John Booth, UEL.

Sarah Jane Boothe (1834/40-1899) married (1854/58) Willard Booth (approx. 1830/5-1866/9) and on Willard we are truly stuck with every trail ending in a blank. He died when my husband's father was very young. The only piece of actual information we have on him is a Methodist Episcopal Church Quarterly Ticket dated 1852 and signed by O. Wilson who apparently was the minister of the Waterloo Circuit, Kingston District at that time.

Willard is an unusual name among the Booth family names which makes us wonder if his mother was a Willard.

Have you run across a Willard Booth in any of your searching into the history of the area?

We would be glad to share Joshua Booth's genealogy back to John Booth of Southold if you are interested in that family.

Yours truly,

(Mrs) M.W. Booth

Dear Mrs Booth -

I wish to thank you for your comments on my book. I am in the process of putting together another one on the Bay of Quinte area. It will be out some day, if I live so long.

I am sorry that I know nothing of Willard Booth. There is a Willard family in the Bath - Amherst Island region, but I know little about their origin. The State Library in Albany, N.Y., might have a genealogy of the family.

Validity Case Scene Shifts

Trust Officer Didn't Tell Wife About $22,500 Will Change

By WAYNE McLEAN
Bureau Staff Reporter

NAPANEE — The courtroom scene for a legal battle over the validity of a $25,000 will of a Kingston woman has been shifted to Whitby on June 6.

The hearing opened March 24 in Kingston at an Ontario Supreme Court session but was adjourned to Napanee after four witnesses had given testimony.

Mr. Justice W. J. Henderson adjourned the case here Tuesday after a two-day session asking to have some original documents produced. One of the 15 witnesses is ill and would be able to attend the Whitby hearing the court was told.

The case involves the validity of the will of Mrs. Emma Helena Gardiner, formerly of 153 Collingwood street and the House of Providence, who died Feb. 15, 1965 at the age of 91.

Mrs. Gardiner made a new will in October, 1964, which bequeathed approximately $22,500 for a $25,000 estate to the wife of a Royal Trust Company official. In a previous will, made in 1961, most of the estate was to be given to a niece, Mrs. Zena R. Connelly, of Chicago.

Mrs. Connelly and two other persons named in the first will, Mrs. Elsie McGowan of Kingston and a cousin, Edwin A. Booth of New York city, are contesting the will. Mrs. Eleanor R. McKinnon, wife of the trust officer, is also named in the case.

Arthur B. McKinnon, 44, testified he knew he was not allowed to receive gifts or bequests from clients "either directly or indirectly". He stated he did not report to his superiors that his wife had been named in Mrs. Gardiner's will because he felt he would receive no benefit from the estate.

Questioned by defence counsel K. A. Flanagan, acting for Mrs. Connelly and Mr. Booth, the trust officer described the term "indirect benefit" as "some room for interpretation."

Mr. McKinnon said he took Mrs. Gardiner's will home and read it but didn't tell anyone that his wife was named in the document.

Asked why he didn't mention the fact to his wife, he replied, "we had a great many other things on our minds."

The 44-year-old trust officer, who worked for Royal Trust for 25 years before he "voluntarily resigned" in December, 1964, admitted signing an annual secrecy pledge and a document relating to a code of ethics. He now lives and works in Oshawa.

Mrs. Gardiner had asked Mr. McKinnon, who handled her financial affairs for about a year before he left the trust company, to obtain her first will from her solicitors, the court learned.

Mr. McKinnon said he tried to get the will and a deed to Mrs. Gardiner's home but the lawyer, D. G. Cunningham, refused to release them.

Mr. McKinnon denied discussing details of the will with his client, although a letter produced in court stated he would obtain the documents and "would discuss the documents."

In answer to questions by Mr. Justice Henderson, the trust officer admitted his wife had visited the elderly lady on two occasions, both in his presence.

The visits and some telephone calls, were made over a period of "a month to a month and a half" before a new will was made by Mrs. Gardiner.

Asked the reason Mrs. Gardiner would change her will after meeting his wife for such a short time, Mr. McKinnon replied, "they seemed to strike it off."

Also appearing before the court were two nuns of the House of Providence order. One, Sister May Redemta, stated Mrs. Gardiner was "a very clear, determined old lady."

Mrs. Gardiner, she said, "kept to herself, didn't have much love in her and didn't make friends easily."

"Her mind was clear, right up until her death," she added.

Another witness, Mrs. Elsie McGowan, told the court she had visited Mrs. Gardiner at the House of Providence on the day of her death.

"Her mind was good, she didn't change one bit," said Mrs. McGowan, a neighbor for 10 years and named in the first will to receive $500.

In previous visits Mrs. Gardiner had told her the $16,000 home on Collingwood street would be left to a Mrs. Connelly. The elderly woman also told her friend that the trust officer had asked her if his wife could visit her.

M. G. Hickey, QC, of Kingston is acting for Mrs. McKinnon and B. W. Trumpour, QC, of Kingston is Mrs. McGowan's counsel.

Dear Dr; Burleigh:

Not hearing from you, I take it that no further progress has been made toward getting the information that I need.

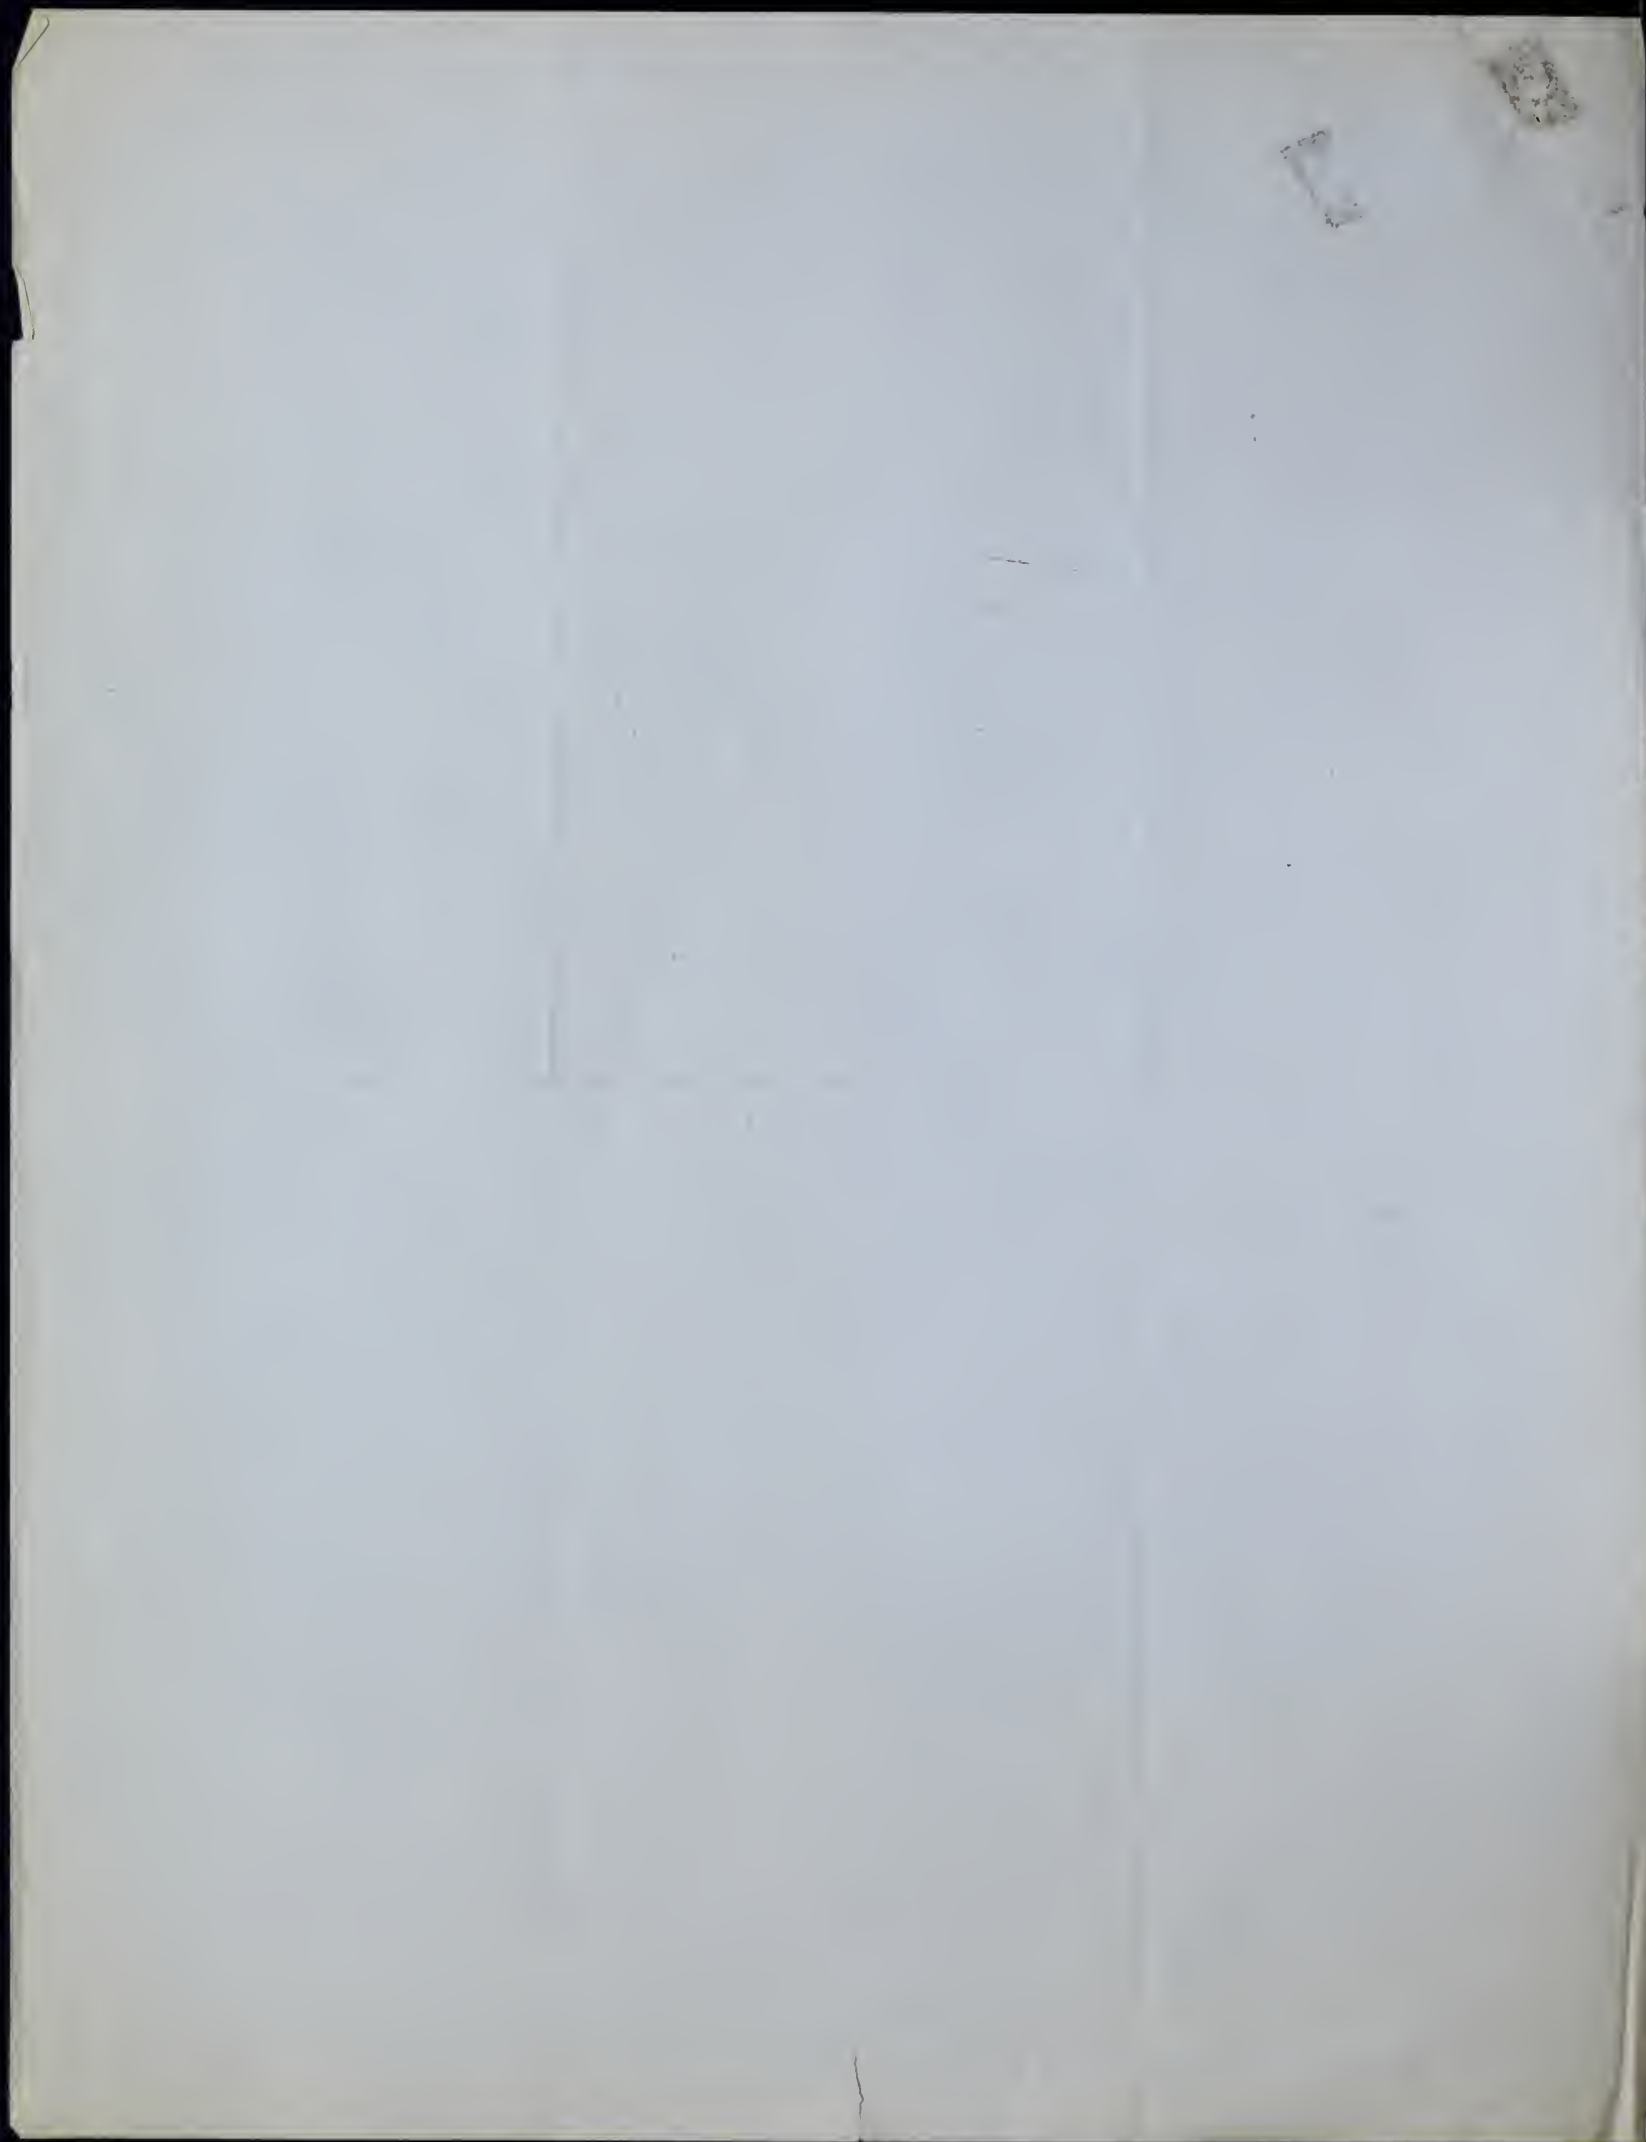

I now am positive of where I got the death date of Elizabeth Bristol Booth (mother of Eleanor). It was long ago before I realized the importance of recording the source of information and proof of same. It is in a Bible once owned by my Grandparents William and Eleanor Tremere, and now in the possession of a cousin of mine, who will not allow me to have a copy made of same. So, a legal document or newspaper article is probably our only hope. This cousin is the daughter of one of those aunts (mentioned in an earlier letter) who, in their life time, was not successful in gaining any family history and certainly were not helpful to any one else who tried.

The death date of John Booth could not have been in that Bible or I would have copied it at the same time.

I hope that my letter mailed from Illinois and including correspondence from the D A R and check, reached you safely.

Very sincerely,

Dr. Clinton E. Martin
